LOCKLEAR, PILOT DIE IN FILM STUNT

Daredevil Flyers Fall 2000 Feet During Night Tail Spin to Produce Some New Thriller for the Movies

Former Army Lieutenant and Milton Elliott Perish; Intrepid Airman Won Many Admirers in His Feats Here

Crashing to earth from a height of 2000 feet in his burning airplane, Lieutenant Omer Locklear, who has repeatedly thrilled thousands of Oaklanders with his daredevil stunts in the air, and his companion, Milton Elliott, were killed in Los Angeles last night while landing on an illuminated field in the dark.

The fall marked the tragic finale of the moving picture, "The Sky Way Man," in which the intrepid airmen were playing star parts, but which was scheduled to have a more happy ending.

Locklear won thousands of admirers in this city and in San Francisco when he flew at Durant field on a number of occasions, performing his dangerous feat with which he originally startled the world of changing from plane to plane in mid-air and doing acrobatics on ropes that hung from the landing gear.

STRIKES GROUND HEAD ON IN FATAL TAIL SPIN

Locklear and Elliott were hovering over the La Brea oil fields at an altitude of 3000 feet, while a large crowd of moving picture people and cameramen waited below. Locklear lit the torch, volplaned to 2000 feet and then went into the tail spin for which the cameramen were waiting. Like a comet, the airplane streaked through the sky, partly righted itself a few feet above the ground, and then, as if Locklear had been blinded by the searchlight glare, swerved and struck the ground head on.

Both men were dead when they were extricated from the burning plane

For this picture Locklear had jumped from a moving train to his flying machine and returned; had crashed with the airplane into a speeding motor car, and last night was to have simulated a fall to death in a burning machine.

LOCKLEAR'S ACHIEVEMENTS

DAZZLED BY LIGHTS

"It is thought possible that the engine may have failed; that Locklear may have mistaken the lights in the oil fields for the searchlights and overshot his mark, or that the big lights on the landing field dazzled him.

Among those who witnessed the tragedy were: James P. Hogan, director of the film company Carl Downing, Assistant Director W. R Howard, four cameramen, Louise Loveley and Viola Dana, all of whom were taking part in the filming of the photoplay.

Locklear is survived by a widow, Mrs. Ruby Locklear; a mother and father. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Locklear; two brothers, Osman and James Locklear, and a sister, all of Fort Worth, Tex. He had no children. His home was at Amarillo, Tex.

Both men are said to have been members of wealthy families.

On December 15 Locklear gave Mme. Luisa Tetrazzini her first ride in an airplane above Tanforan park. He was decorated on December 27 by Tom Grain, director general of the department of aeronautics of the Chinese government, who pinned a gold medal on him.

FLYER FAMOUS FOR DAREDEVIL STUNTS

Locklear coquetted with death in San Francisco only last month. July 13, when he flew over Union Square and almost skimmed over the roofs of the skyscrapers.

Locklear's first appearance in Oakland was on December 1, last year, when in a gale at Durant field he leaped lightly from one roaring airplane to another while rushing madly through the air at 90 miles an hour, hung head downward while his machine skimmed low over the spectators, and scampered about on the wings of the planes. On December 7 he again performed stunts to a much larger crowd at Durant field, and on December 14 he gave an exhibition at Tanforan park in San Francisco.

On December 22 he had a narrow escape from death when he made eleven attempts to change planes in the air and at one time was struck by a steel rung of the ladder in the forehead and nearly knocked off.

Locklear was one of the first men to do a 50-foot leap on a speeding motorcycle. He and Elliott served in the American army air service during the war as instructors.

WIDOW AND MOTHER TO CLAIM BODIES

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—Funeral arrangements for Lieutenant Ormer Locklear, nationally known daredevil aviator, who met death last night, together with his assistant, Lieutenant Milton Elliott, when an airplane in which they were being photographed for a cinema production crashed to earth at a local field, are being held up pending the arrival here of the birdman's widow.

Mrs. Ruby Locklear, of Fort Worth, Tex., the wife, was notified of the accident last night, and is on her way to Los Angeles to claim the body which is at a Hollywood undertaking establishment. Mrs. J. M. Elliott of Gadsden, Ala., widowed mother of Lieutenat Elliott, also is expected here to claim the body of her son.

Charlie Chaplin Leads Wife 'Dog's Life,' She Claims in Divorce Plea

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—Mildred Harris Chaplin, who is stopping at a local hotel, denied today that she brought suit for divorce from her famous husband, Charlie Chaplin, moving picture comedian.

"I have signed no papers for divorce action," she stated. "I simply instructed my attorneys to bring suit for separation."

Mrs. Chaplin spoke very highly of her husband.

"There was no particular trouble," she said. "We just couldn't get along. My husband was not made for marriage. He is a man who should devote all his time to work. He is so nervous and irritable when working on a new picture that it is impossible to get along with him. He is a wonderful man, brilliant, but erratic.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3. — A story of domestic unhappiness almost from the time of the marriage of Charles Chaplin, noted film comedian, and Mildred Harris Chaplin, on October 23, 1918, was revealed today following a divorce action brought here by Mrs. Chaplin.

Severance of the matrimonial bond is asked on the grounds of extreme cruelty and bodily injury alleged to have been done Mrs. Chaplin by her husband.

EQUITABLE DIVISION OF PROPERTY SOUGHT

A temporary order restraining Chaplin from disposing of his interest in certain motion picture films was granted yesterday by Superior Judge Jackson, when the divorce complaint was filed. "Equitable division" of property is sought by Mrs. Chaplin.

Yesterday's action came as the climax of differences between the Chaplins, which sprang into the public eye with a personal encounter between Chaplin and Louis Mayer, manager for Mrs. Chaplin, here last March. At that time Chaplin accused Mayer of interference in his domestic affairs.

CHAPLIN ABSENT; OLD DENIAL CITED

Chaplin had not been located early today by interviewers who had sought him since his wife's divorce move became known His attorney said he knew nothing of Mrs. Chaplin's plans until he read of it in the newspapers this morning. "I do not know even where Chaplin is," he said.

Friends of Chaplin pointed out that when Mrs. Chaplin recently gave out an interview telling of her husband's alleged neglect, he had made a general denial of her accusations.

Mrs. Chaplin's attorneys said she was in New York.

STAYED AWAY FROM HOME NIGHTS, CLAIM

Among the charges in the complaint are the following:

That Chaplin had refused to live with her any longer and insisted that she get a divorce

That he refused to pay their household bills.

That he stayed away from home at nights during the period before their separation.

That he refused to give her any of their community property and likewise refused to account for their community earnings.

NEGLECT AND ABUSE CHARGED TO COMEDIAN

That he became abusive, failed to show proper consideration of her delicate condition before and after the birth of their child, and had insisted that she resume work before the camera.

Then followed a long list of alleged acts said to have caused Mrs. Chaplin extreme mental anguish.

Friends of the comedian and his wife today said they had long awaited filing of divorce papers, for the clouds of discord had early appeared on their matrimonial horizon.

Some attributed the open break to the sorrow occasioned by the death of their child three days after its birth, July 7, 1919.

Chaplin replied to a statement made public by his wife last March, at which time she was said to be contemplating filing divorce papers, by saying that he had $50,000 in cancelled checks paid his wife as evidence that he had not failed to provide for her.

Liner's Diversion Due to Irish Raids

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Aug 3. — According to some of the newspapers today, successive raids on lighthouses have been one of the reasons for diverting trans-Atlantic liners from Queenstown. The Graphic today says that the diverting of the vessels was in nowise connected with Archbishop Mannix of Australia, but was due to the initiative of the steamship companies who have found it increasingly difficult to obtain pilotage and were alarmed at the crippling of lighthouses. The newspaper adds that the companies also complained of irregularity of the railroad service at Queenstown.

Reds Killed Trying To Seize Transport

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.—News of a battle on board a transport carrying deported Russians to Odessa, when Bolshevik agents attempted to seize the vessel, was received here today.

The Russians had been sent here from France for deportation to Odessa because of their Bolshevik sympathies. Two Russian people's commissars, who got on board the ship with forged passports, led an "uprising" when the transport was passing into the Black Sea from the Bosphorus. The Russians attempted to disarm the crew and seize the vessel, but were charged by fifty Sengales guards with fixed bayonets. The decks were cleared after a number of the Russians had been killed and wounded.

CITY MOVES TO GET NEW S. P. STATION

Action Before Rail Commission If Road Officials Refuse Modern Depot at Franklin and Fourteenth, Authorized

City Attorney Will File Action Under Resolution Presented Council By Morse and Demanding Handsome Building

Steps to compel the Southern Pacific Company to construct a modern depot on the company's property at Fourteenth and Franklin streets were authorized by the City Council this morning and will result in an action before the State Railroad Commission unless the railroad company accedes to the city's request for the improvement of the property.

The matter was taken before the Council by F. F. Morse, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety, who filed a lengthy communication urging the necessity for improving the present depot site and submitted a resolution authorizing H. L. Hagan, city attorney, to commence and prosecute the necessary proceedings to force construction of a modern depot on the site.

COMPANY IS GIVEN CHANCE TO REFUSE

Objection to the adoption of the resolution as it stood was offered by Commissioner W. J. Baccus, who recommended that the railroad company be given an opportunity of refusing to make the improvements urged before summary action was taken. The resolution was passed with an amendment providing that the company heads shall be consulted before the action is commenced.

As a consequence Hagan will confer with officials of the Southern Pacific Company, presenting the official request of the city for the construction of a modern, first-class depo on the block bounded by Fourteenth, Thirteenth, Webster and Franklin streets, in place of the existing two-story frame structure.

LONG PENDING PLAN BROUGHT TO HEAD.

If the company fails o take steps to make the improvements, the case will be carried to the Railroad Commission.

In supporting his communication, in which he declared that the present building is an eye-sore and a bar to the easterly development of the business section, Commissioner Morse stated that the issue has been pending without results for years and that no action could be expected from the company unless steps were taken by the city.

During my entire incumbency as commissioner I have felt the necessity of the erection of a modern depot at Fourtenth and Franklin streets. I have delayed bringing the matter to the attention of the City Council, because during the period of the war the management of the railroads was taken over by the United States Government, who operated them upon the strictest economy. However, that time has now passed and the railroads have been returned to their private owners.

I feel therefor that there is no longer any necessity of delaying the settlement of this question. The antiquated and dilapidated buildings now used by the Southern Pacific Company at Fourtenth and Franklin are too well known to you for me to describe them. They are located in the heart of our city and form a veritable Chinese wall to eastern development of the business section. They constitute an eye-sore in the very heart of the city and cause the newcomer to form an erroneous impression of our city upon his first arrival therein

IMPORTANT CAR CENTER

This depot is the originating point for two street car lines operated by the Southern Pacific Company, one going to Alameda and one going to West Oakland. It is also the original starting point of two interurban trains acting as feeders to the ferry system operated by the Southern Pacific Company. The present one-story building and narrow sheds offer inadequate protection and accommodation, particularly during the winter months, to passengers. Unquestionably the passengers are entitled to first class accommodations and it is the duty of this council to initiate proceedings with the end that they may obtain such accommodations.

The railroad lines operated by the Southern Pacific from this depot are a source of large revenue to it. The company, therefore, cannot claim that they cannot afford to erect a modern and first-class station building at this point. The erection of a first-class station building would unquestionably cause an increased use of these ferry lines and therefore the S P. would itself be benefited by the construction of a modern and up-to-date depot.

Only a short-minded and narrow policy contrary to the best interests of the City of Oakland could have allowed such valuable property, forming an entire block in the heart of our city to go unused for such a long period of time. I have no doubt that when the matter is called to the attention of the railroad company by the proper authorities that they will immediately see the necessity of furnishing their passengers with adequate accommodations.

BUILDINGS ARE CALLED EYESORE

It does not seem fair to me that the adjoining property owners should be compelled, because of the past unprogressive spirit of the

U. S. Will Keep Army on Rhine Two Years More

Orders to Recruit Men for Service Abroad Come to Coast Officers

Plans of the American government to continue 10,000 United States troops with artillery and airplanes as an armby of occupation about Coblenz, Germany, two years longer or more were disclosed today when United States army recruiting stations here displayed large banners bearing the signs: "Enlist for Service in Germany."

Orders from Adjutant General Harris in Washington, D. C., for the recruiting at once of 1123 more troops for service in German territory having been received in a telegram by all recruiting officers, who have been authorized to promise two years of service in France and across the Rhine.

The strengthening of the present force of 8500 Americans in Europe indicates that the United States expects to join with the allied nations in enforcing the treaty demands for the next two years, allied observers declare.

The adjutant general's order calls for the immediate enlistment of 957 infantrymen without special qualifications, thirty cooks, thirty clerks, fifteen cavalrymen, five cooks, five clerks; twenty-three field artillerymen, five cooks and clerks and a number of quartermaster clerks, cooks and bakers.

The organizations now in Germany are the Sixth Field Artillery, a provisional squadron of cavalry, Quartermaster Corp detachment, the Fifth, Fiftieth and Eighth infantry, the Seventh machine gun battalion and the Twelfth mobile ordnance repair unit.

All enlistments are for a period of three years.

Irrigation Act Of 1919 Found Void by Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3. — The California irrigation act of 1919 was declared unconstitutional here today by the State Supreme Court. The decision was made in an action brought by George W. Mordecai against the board of supervisors of Madera county.

The question as to the constitutionality of the California irrigation act of 1915, amended in 1917 and re-enacted in 1919, which created a centralized control of irrigation districts under the Irrigation Board of California, was before the Supreme Court in the suit, affecting about one million acres of land in Madera and Kern counties.

Although not connected with the court proceedings, eight irrigation districts in Fresno, Tulare and Kings counties, of a combined area of about one million acres, are equally interested in the outcome, as they joined together in forming the Pine Flat conservation district under the provisions of the act to bring water from the Kings river basin to their land. Three of these districts, the Tulare, Mendota and San Jose, were organized under the irrigation act. The remaining five, the Laguna, Stratford, Mendota, Tranquility and James, are Wright act districts Two others, the Medano and Colusa Delta, are organized under the irrigation act but not included in the Pine Flat project

Miller & Lux, who sought to have their land formed into an irrigation district under this act and to have it excluded from districts formed under the Wrigth act of 1887, are the largest single land-owners affected by the suit, which was before the court on a petition for a writ of review of the decision of the Madera county supervisors.

Pending the decision from the Supreme Court, the Irrigation Board virtually suspended its hearings and investigations. The decision leaves as the controlling law in the state the Wrigth act, which vests control of irrigation districts solely in the people residing therein and has been used as the basis for irrigation laws in many Western states.

Mordecai alleged in his complaint that the Madera county supervisors exceeded their jurisdiction in including in the Madera irrigation district 350,000 acres formed under the Wright act, 3965 acres for which there had been a prior petition for organization as the Cottonwood irrigation district under the irrigation act. The suit followed the action of the supervisors in refusing to allow Mordecai and Miller & Lux to form their land into five separate districts. Mordecai then filed his petition directly with the Supreme Court, while Miller & Lux took their case, involving 29,400 acres, into the Superior Court of Madera county, where it is still pending.

CANTU MADE OUTLAW BY NEW EDICT

Mexico City Denies Legal Authority to Governor of Lower California, Now in Revolt Against Pres. Huerta

Deadlock Marks Negotiations on Border; Failure to Reach Agreement for Peace or War Admitted By Envoys

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, Aug 3.—A proclamation declaring the governorship of the northern district of Lower California to be vacant and specifically asserting Estaban Cantu was without legal authority to retain the office has been issued in Mexico City, according to a telegram received here today by Eduardo Ruiz, representative in Los Angeles of the defacto government, from M. Allessio Robles, private secretary to President de la Huerta The telegram was a reply to one from Senor Ruiz asking the status of Cantu It also contained the statement that 10,000 copies of the proclamation would be distributed by the de facto government along the Mexican border.

REVOLT STORM CENTERS IN LOS ANGELES, SAYS RUIZ

"Los Angeles now is the whirlpool of the Cantu rebellion," said Senor Ruiz, "with many prominent American citizens involved in this conspiracy against my government." Senor Ruiz stated he was "in touch with every phase" of Cantu's activities and gave out a list of garrisons in the Northern District of Lower California that he said were manned by experienced soldiers to the number of 537.

Senor Ruiz said he would welcome a "negotiated settlement of the Cantu rebellion and that he believed it would mean the eventual elimination" of the governor

ENVOYS ADMIT BORDER PARLEY DEADLOCKED

MEXICALI, Lower California, Aug 3 (By Associated Press).—"Manana," the most overworked word in the Spanish language, seemed to apply to the progress of the Cantu revolt and the De la Huerta invasion to suppress it here today.

[illegible] anything to the views of the situation expressed yesterday, which ended with a conference between Governor Estaban Cantu of the northern district of Lower California, and representatives of the provisional government. The results of the conference were not announced, but indirectly it was learned they were not conclusive of either peace or war, and that the general situation was unchanged; that is, Governor Cantu was continuing his independent civil activities with his break with the general governor still sharply defined, and was engaged in recruiting and equipping added troops, on the other side, the provisional government was exercising such functions as remained to it on the American side of the border, where its consular and some other officers were located, and word was received indirectly that its troops were continuing to mass for an invasion, probably by way of Ensenada.

NATIVE SON MAY SUCCEED CANTU

At that point a well defined move was reported to name a native born son of Lower California as governor to succeed Cantu, the sponsors of the movement expressing hope that their plans would form a compromise ground between the opposing interests; that is, the Governor Cantu would be disposed to yield to someone not affiliated with the De la Huerta regime and know to be familiar with the problems of Lower California, and that the provisional government would be disposed to accept someone who, because of past aloofness was not bound up with the political or business interests that have backed Governor Cantu.

London Awaits U.S. Action on Russ Peace

LONDON, Aug 3—The foreign office has not yet been advised that the United States will participate actively in the proposed general peace conference of Russia and the border states in London, it was stated today. A report was cabled from the United States that President Wilson had decided to appoint a plenipotentiary to attend the parley. Officials of the foreign office were not so sure today that the conference would be held. They said that, even if it takes place, it will not result in a revision of the Treaty of Versailles except possibly in minor matters affecting plebiscites.

Mail Pilot 'Plane Wrecked in Tumble

OMAHA, Aug. 3.—Plane No. 3 of the all-metal mail aerial trail-blazing monoplane squadron, on its way from New York to San Francisco, piloted by Captain H. E Hartney and carrying Eddie Rickenbacker, Ernest Buehle, mechanician, and T. J. O'Brien of Omaha as passengers, crashed into a house while endeavoring to make a get-away from Ak Sar Ben field at 10:10 this morning and fell to the ground. Aside from a severe shaking all the members of the party escaped uninjured. The plane was wrecked.

Ponzi Is Faced By 1500 Note-Holders

Gigantic Red Armies are Pounding Polish to Pieces; Allies Believe Warsaw Is Doomed to Capture

BREST-LITOVSK TAKEN BY RUSS

By NEWTON C. PARKE,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Aug 3.—Armistice negotiations between the Poles and Russians have been broken off, according to official advices received by the French foreign office today.

The collapse is reported to have occurred when the members of the Russian delegation demanded a complete discussion of peace terms.

The Polish envoys, according to the foreign office despatches informed the Russians they are not authorized to discuss peace, but only armistice terms.

The Polish plenipotentiaries are said to have left for Warsaw to consult their government. They asked that if they obtained authority to discuss peace, they might meet the Russians in Minsk on August 4.

POLISH ARMIES IN FULL RETREAT

The Polish first and fourth armies are in full retreat, leaving a wide gap open through which the Red troops are pouring, the advices to the foreign office stated.

The Polish first and fourth armies were holding the front north and northeast of Warsaw.

Their retirement is said to have opened the way to the Bug river towards which the Red forces are now advancing. The Bug river flows north of Warsaw and empties into the Vistula at Novy Dvor, 15 miles west of the Polish capital.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Official announcement of the capture of the fortress of Brest-Litovsk by the Russians was contained in a Soviet war office communique wirelessed from Moscow today. Russian troops occupied the city Sunday, capturing "prisoners and trophies," the communique said

Violent fighting was still in progress between the Poles and Russians northeast and southeast of Warsaw today with both sides claiming successes.

The Polish war office claimed that the Russian drive on Warsaw from the north had begun to weaken, while the Soviet war office at Moscow reported that the Poles were in retreat south of the Narew river with the Russians in pursuit.

On the old Galician frontier southeast of Warsaw, where the Poles are undertaking a counter offensive, both sides claimed to be advancing.

The Russian army has been ordered by Moscow in a wireless message to continue fighting until August 4, when the armistice conditions will be given to the Poles in detail, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Vienna today.

RUSSIANS FORCED TO QUIT GALICIA

The Vienna despatch said that the Moscow radiogram had been picked up in Vienna.

According to a despatch from Vienna quoting advices received in that city from Warsaw, the Russians were compelled to withdraw several railway divisions from Galicia to put down a revolutionary movement in Ukrainia.

A news agency despatch from Warsaw said that the Russians were insisting upon "secret diplomacy" at the armistice negotiations. This despatch said that the Polish Government had sent a wireless proposal to Moscow that correspondents be allowed to attend the parley, but the Soviet rejected it.

LONDON, Aug. 3—Driving through a gap in the Polish front in Galicia, Bolshevik cavalry has reached a point only 30 miles from Lemberg, a Warsaw despatch received here today said. The Reds were striking toward the rich Galician oil fields. Great masses of Russian cavalry were observed advancing in the region of Brody, 58 miles northeast of Lemberg. The Poles made a stand north of Busk, but were driven back, a Moscow wireless said.

POLES START COUNTER ATTACK

The Poles have started a counter attack against the Russians southeast of Lemberg, the statement said.

"The enemy attacks are weakening," the communique said. "The Poles are attacking southeast of Kozaki (southeast of Lemberg.")

The statement declared that, carrying out French plans, the Poles were counter attacking vigorously northwest and southeast of the lines between Bielsk and Brest-Litovsk, and that Polish artillery had destroyed two strong positions.

PROVISIONAL SOVIET IS FORMED IN POLAND

LONDON, Aug. 3 (by the Associated Press.)—A provisional Soviet has been formed in the parts of Poland that have been occupied by Soviet troops, according to a wireless message received here from Moscow today.

Julian Maaklevsky is chairman of the newly formed body, adds the despatch.

The new Soviet has issued a manifesto to the laborers of Poland, exhorting them to rise "against Pilhuskie's Burgoise, land-owner government."

The manifesto declares that a stable peace between Russia and Poland is only possible through Soviets of the workers.

WARSAW, Aug. 2. — (By The Associated Press Polish).—News of the progres sof armistice negotiations of Polish and Soviet representatives was awaited impatiently by Warsaw today, but as of 9 o'clock this evening the officials said no reports had been received.

Word was passed among Americans here, upon advice from Washington, that those desiring to remain in Warsaw, should it appear the Bolsheviki would take the capitol, would do so at their own risk. It was said the American authorities would request their passports, which will be returned afterward if individuals requested them.

It was said the indications were that few if any Americans would remain, although some naturalized citizens might desire to stay in Warsaw.

LENINE, TROTSKY ORDERED HOSTILITIES

WARSAW, Aug. 3. — The Polish government announced it had received information that Lenine and Trotsky ordered hostilities to be pushed vigorously until August 4, in spite of the proposed armistice. The Bolshevig leaders had been advised a few more days' fighting would put Poland completely at the mercy of the Red army.

A despatch from Berlin dated 7 p. m. m. Monday announced the Red Cross ordered all its women workers to flee from Poland.

So far as known here, the allied mission remains in Warsaw.

Officials in Warsaw had made every effort to communicate with their armistice delegates, but in vain, according to another despatch.

WARSAW, Aug. 3 (By The Associated Press).—Brest-Litovsk, the last great fortress guarding Warsaw from the east, has apparently fallen before the tremendous assault of the Russians. In the north the Soviet forces have smashed forward in their drive westward to a point only 60 miles east of this city.

Over a front of 120 miles Polish armies are being pounded to pieces before the Russian Bolshevik hordes, which are being hurled into the battle in a desperate attempt to capture Warsaw before the conclusion of the armistice conference at Kobryn.

An official statement, issued late last night, showed the Soviet armies had reached a line running from Kossaki to Ciechanowicz, which is only sixty miles from the city, with which it is connected by an excellent auto highway.

POLE SITUATION IS NEAR CRISIS

Advices today indicate that the situation in Poland, from the Polish Allied standpoint, is approaching a crisis.

The Polish delegation, which went to Baranovitchi, to negotiate an armistice, not only failed to obtain terms from the Russians, but was sent back to Warsaw by the Soviet authorities, who demanded that the emissaries obtain a mandate to take up peace negotiations.

This will delay even the beginning of armistice negotiations until tomorrow at the earliest. The Polish army, which apparently has again relaxed under the tremendous onslaught of the Bolshevik. The Russians are only sixty miles from Warsaw. The Polish capital seems critically menaced, if not doomed to capture. Americans remaining there

France, Belgium Alliance Terms Given Washington

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(By the Associated Press).—General terms of the defensive military alliance between France and Belgium, as drawn up by Marshal Foch of the French army and the Belgian chief in official circles.

Military support of France by Belgium in future armed conflicts is pledged upon condition that France prove not to have been the aggressor.

Belgium also reserves the right to remain neutral in all disputes between the interests of France and other nations in France's colonial possessions. Details as to France's pledge to Belgium have not been received.

The alliance is to endure for a period of from five to fifteen years. It is understood that before official promulgation the terms will be submitted to the league of nations for approval, following similar action by the British and Japanese governments, and advising the league that future drafts of the Anglo-Japanese alliance would be submitted to the league in order to bring its provisions uniformly with the aims of the league. Attempts of Belgium to induce Great Britain to join with France in the defensive alliance, the official advices stated, have so far been in vain.

RED-POLE PEACE PARLEY IS OFF; WAR CONTINUES

have received official intimation that they stay at their own risk. Coincident with the serious military developments comes an announcement from Moscow that a Soviet government had set up in the portions of Poland which the Bolsheviki have overrun.

By FRANK CHARLTON
International News Service Cable Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The Russian central Soviet government has completely revealed its hand in the break off of armistice negotiations with the Poles, as reported in official advices to the French foreign office today.

There is every indication that Russia desires to impose her will on Poland and dictate her own peace terms without allied interference, while the powerful Bolshevik army is smashing its way through Poland and is drawing closer day by day to Warsaw, the Polish capital.

Russia wants to enter into direct peace negotiations with Poland while discussing armistice conditions Whether the break off in the truce parley will result in a complete collapse, or whether the Polish envoys will be empowered by Warsaw to discuss peace will not be known until the Warsaw government has been consulted. The world should know the answer within a few days

POLE MORALE BROKEN

The morale of the Polish army seems to have been broken.

The French foreign office, which is Poland's best friend in Continental Europe, admits that the attempted Polish counter offensive has failed. The Reds, flushed with victory, are down through Poland with amazing speed. The advance guard of the Bolshevik armies are reported to be less than forty miles from the Polish capital today.

A mighty encircling movement is in progress and Warsaw is being surrounded. Already Russian troops lie southeast, east, north and northwest of the city. The First and Fourth Polish armies, the mainstay of the northern army, are reported in retreat with the Russians pressing through the gap towards the Bug river.

It is likely that the Poles, reinforced by volunteers, will make their last stand on the Bug river, 15 miles north of Warsaw.

REDS PRESS WESTWARD

The Russians are at Mlava, sixty miles northwest of Warsaw, and ten miles from the old German border. They have reached Ostroleke, sixty miles due north of Warsaw. They have passed the fortress of Brest-Litowsk, and are pressing westward from that base.

Neither Great Britain nor France is in a position to go to war in Poland's aid at this time and Poland seems to be at the complete m... the Russian army.

It has been ten days since Russia accepted Poland's request for an armistice, but with the exception of a brief lull of approximately 24 hours, the Russians have pressed home their attacks over 350 miles of battlefront during all that time.

The bold and defiant attitude assumed by the Moscow government has caused much anxiety and anger on the part of France and Great Britain. It threatens to upset completely the plan for a general peace conference in London. Great Britain proposed that Poland, Finland, Roumania and the smaller states bordering on Russia be represented at the London parley and that a general peace be arranged. Russia has given her reply on the battlefield by continuing her offensive against Poland to compel Poland to acquiesce in peace terms before any general conference can be held.

NEUTRALITY IS CLAIMED

The great potential element in the situation now is the future attitude of Germany. The German government proclaimed neutrality in the war between Poland and Russia and refused to allow the Allies to send troops across German soil to the relief of Poland. Russia has been conducting a feverish propaganda campaign with her wireless upon Germany and there is said to be widespread demand in Germany for a union with Russia.

Large masses of Russian troops have reached the old German border but so far they have scrupulously refrained from entering on German soil.

The German government requested permission to send an army into East Prussia to protect her frontier, but the Allies, taking alarm over the possibility of a Russo-German alliance, have refused to grant it. It is understood that Germany, disregarding the silence of the Allies, sent troops into East Prussia and they are being maintained there now.

War On Reds, Said Lloyd George to Poland, Is Claim

(By International News Service)

PARIS, Aug. 3.—A sensational article alleging that Premier Lloyd George has been advising Poland in the name of the allies since September, 1919, to make war on soviet Russia, was printed today by the newspaper L'Oepare.

The British premier was accused of dissuading Ignace Jan Paderewski from making peace with Russia while he was premier of Poland, and it is declared that promises of military aid was given to the Polish government.

This policy, according to the newspaper, was pushed by the czarist refugees with enormous sums of money distributed by a former Russian ambassador to the United States.

General Pilsudski, commander of the Polish army, was said to have been advised by the allies to advance toward Moscow through Smolensk. But General Pilsudski, not wishing to be put in the position of being dominated, advanced towards Kieff. Thereupon, added the newspaper, the allies accused Poland of militarism and bandoned her.

FRANCE STANDS READY TO TREAT WITH BOLSHEVIKI

(Copyright, 1920, by United Press)

PARIS, Aug. 3.—France stands ready t... recognize the Bolsheviki the moment they assume the international obligations of the former Russian government, Premier Millerand declared today to the United Press.

In his first interview since the allied conference at Boulogne, the Premier thus clearly defined his country's attitude toward the Bolsheviki.

"France will recognize the Bolsheviki as a government the minute it assumes the international obligations of the former Russian government," he said, "and this includes, first, payment of all debts, second, acceptance of all treaties and observance of all international engagements with the former allies of the Imperial Russian government."

STATEMENT IS CLEAR

Millerand's interview was the first clear-cut, categorical announcement of the terms under which diplomatic relations may be restored between Paris and Moscow. It was the first time that the premier in any public expression had definitely committed himself to recognition, narrowing down the condition to a single, concrete prerequisite.

"We will naturally expect Moscow to present evidence of the sincerity of her intention to carry out her obligations," the Premier said.

He declined to go into details with reference to the nature of the guarantees, saying:

WILL TREAT WITH THEM

"Thus far Moscow has not made any offer to recognize the engagements of the preceding government. You may say for me that we will treat with them politically the instant they fulfill this condition."

Millerand laid stress on the desirability of the United States participating in the settlement of the Russian question. When asked if the Russian policies of France and the United States were the same, he smiled slightly and with an expressive gesture of hopelessness, replied:

HOPES U. S. RE-ENTERS

"I don't know what the United States' Russian policy is Washington unfortunately apparently has completely withdrawn from European affairs. All I can say is I'm sorry and hope she will re-enter soon."

So far, the premier said, he had received no direct word of the Polish armistice negotiations.

"If they fail to agree," he declared, "France will support Poland to the utmost with officers and war material. Whether French troops will be sent will be retermined when the need for making a decision arises."

BRITISH ARE EXERCISED AT PARLEY DELAY

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Irritation and anxiety were displayed by the British Government today over the delay of the Russian Bolsheviists in opening active armistice negotiations with the Poles at Baranovitchi. Officials of the foreign office, and others close to Premier Lloyd George, expressed belief that the Reds were deliberately holding up the conference. It is openly stated in government circles that, if the delay continues, all plans for a general peace conference in London will be canceled and M. Krassin, head of the Bolshevik trade commission, will be sent home.

Polish volunteers for military service now total 300,000, according to official reports from Warsaw. The Lithuanians are said to be grumbling under the oppressive measures of the Reds and are preparing to unite with the Poles in an effort to solidify the Polish front.

While the Russians are on the East Prussian frontier it was declared in semi-official circles today, that there is little chance that the Allies will permit Germany to organize a big army to resist possible Russian invasion.

CITY DEMANDS S. P. STATION

railroad company, to delay their development of their adjoining property I am assured that if the S. P. were compelled to remove the present dilapidated buildings and to erect a modern and first-class depot that the adjoining property owners would immediately commence the development of their property. The latter, however, cannot do so as long as this eyesore and vacant lot fronts on their property.

I feel sure that this council, having in mind the progress and best interests of the City of Oakland, will have no hesitancy in passing the accompanying resolution directing the City Attorney to initiate proceedings before the Railroad Commission, looking to the construction of a first-class depot at Fourteenth and Franklin. As representatives of the citizens of Oakland, we owe this duty not only to the commuters but also to all forward-looking and progressive persons who are working toward the upbuilding and protection of our city.

GUNBOATS ROUT CHINESE PIRATES

SHANGHAI, Aug. 3.—Brigands who have terrorized the upper reaches of the Yangtsze river in recent months found a sudden check put upon their activities when American and British gunboats were despatched into the upper river from Shanghai, according to reports that have filtered back to Shanghai

The gunboats were sent up to Chunking after a band of outlaws took possession of the Robert Dollar II of the Robert Dollar Company of Shanghai at Wanhsien, in Szechuen province, and were frightened away only by the timely appearance of the American gunboat Palos, which came in response to distress signals

The Robert Dollar II, on the maiden voyage of the new up-river service the Dollar company is establishing, was fired upon from shore after the first encounter. Messages to Shanghai said that the bandits vanished into the hills on the appearance of the gunboats.

QUEEN MARIE HIDES FROM U.S. CLIMBERS

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Disgusted by the invasion on her royal privacy by "American social climbers," Queen Marie of Rumania has left the Ritz, ostensibly for Brides-les-Bains, although really she is living incognito in Paris with the Countess Crisodelani, a school girl friend who married a member of a noble Rumanian family.

Queen Marie makes no secret of her contempt for new rich spenders who seem to think a queen is legitimate game for their social bullets. To intimates she has continued the fact that life at the Ritz became unbearable.

"I couldn't cross the lobby without some American woman introducing herself and in the same breath inviting me to dinner. People I'd never even heard of, coming from all sorts of impossible places, like New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and even Kansas City, would wait in the restaurant for a chance to speak to me."

Japan Consul At Honolulu Seeks Pact

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 3.—That his most important mission to Hawaii is the reconciliation of the sugar planters and the Japanese laborers was the statement made by C. Yada, newly appointed consul general of Japan at Honolulu, who has just arrivd from Tokyo.

Yada, who formerly was consul general at New York and at Ottawa, the Canadian capital, said he hoped leading men in the sugar and other business in Hawaii would make a trip to Japan and indulge in frank discussions with Japanese businessmen on labor and industrial problems.

Beef Prices Decline, Meat Packers Say

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—(United Press).—Wholesale beef prices have "declined materially" throughout the country from those prevailing late in June, according to a statements issued today by the Institute of American Meat Packers.

The average wholesale price in the East decreased from 10 to 15 per cent from the last of June to the last of July, the statement said. The decline on less costly grades was greater than that on choice grades. The supply was greater in July than in June.

FIRE, RIOT RISKS HELD UNNEEDED

In view of a war department ruling that the insurance is not compulsory, the fire and riot insurance policies carried by the school department on clothing and equipment furnished by the United States government for the Reserve Officers' Training Corps units in this city will be discontinued during the coming school year, under a recommendation submitted to the Board of Education by the finance committee.

The recommendation was based on the fact that the insurance cost $2000 last year and furnished no additional security, and the war department decision that the bond required of the school department guaranteeing the safe-keeping and return of all equipment issued is sufficient to protect the interests of the government.

A contract for the construction of 25 unit open-air school buildings was today awarded by the department to John R. Faulkes, the total called for in the contract being $41,600. F. W. Maurice was given the contract for the construction of additions to the Lockwood school and a contract for the auditing of the financial records of the department was awarded to Gordon Robb. All the contracts were awarded on the low bids submitted.

WALK OR USE TROLLEY, JUDGE TELLS SPEEDER

Speeding forty miles an hour on East Fourteenth street not only cost Alan Babcock, 3615 Market street, $10 this morning in the police court of Acting Judge Ralph Richmond, but it involved the loss of the right to operate his car for a period of ten days.

"Why were you speeding at a forty-mile rate?" asked the judge.

"I was in a hurry to get to the place I was going to," replied Babcock.

"Well, when you are in a hurry again for the next few days, take a street car or walk, because I am going to suspend your license," said the judge.

PRINCE GEORGE B. C., Aug. 3.—Planes two, three and four of the army squadron of four planes attempting a New York to Nome flight arrived last night at Prince George from Jasper, B. C., covering the distance in two hours forty minutes. Captain Street, commander of the party, was forced to turn back to Jasper soon after leaving there because of a forced landing, in which his plane was damaged.

Chicago Loses Fight On Live Stock Rates

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Collection of charges for unloading and loading live stock in addition to the rates on live stock to and from Chicago stock yards was found today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to be an unlawful and unreasonable practice. In deciding the case brought by the Chicago live stock exchange against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company, the commission held that loading and unloading of live stock in the Chicago yards was a duty of the railroads.

WIFE POISONING IS CONFESSED BY SINGLETON

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—James Singleton, divorced husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Singleton, has confessed to the police that he gave Mrs. Singleton a package of headache powders with which he had mixed strychnin to kill himself, and that this had caused her death from poisoning, Monday, at her home, 1136 Golden Gate avenue.

Only after he had been confronted by M. Melmon, chemist, of 1562 O'Farrell street, who testified that he had bought the strychnin from him, and after a three hours' grilling by Acting Captain of Detectives Goff, Policewoman Katherine O'Connor and Detective Michael Burke did Singleton break down and confess.

BROODED OVER TROUBLES

Singleton said he brooded over his wife's alleged relations with Joseph Hattrup, employee of the Board of Works, and over her refusal to dismiss her divorce suit against him.

Attorney Austin W Arnold, counsel for Singleton, declared today that his client is insane, as evidenced by the fact that, after his wife had died, he went to Melmon and pleaded with him not to tell anyone he had bought strychnin, although Singleton had bought the drugs under an assumed name

In his signed statement, Singleton says

"My wife called on me at my room in the Oregon Hotel on the evening of July 22 or 23 I asked her if she would let me have possession of our two children, James Jr, aged 8 and Katherine, aged 4. Her answer was, 'I'd see them both in their graves first' I then thought it would be a good time to end the whole thing, so I gave her the headache medicine, saying, 'Here's something to cure your headache'

"I hoped that she would take it then so that I could take some myself and die with her. She didn't and went out. I followed her until she took a street car for her home and watched the car out of sight. I thought of calling her to get the bottle back, but I couldn't do it Later when I didn't hear that she'd taken the poison, I hoped she had thrown it away

MIXED DOSE FOR SELF

"When I heard she was dead, I guessed how it happened and tried to get some more strychnin for myself, but couldn't bring myself to do it. I decided to wait until I felt worse"

The police at that point heard Melmon, who said that Singleton came to A Di Nola's drug store, 900 McAllister street, on November 11, November 29 and March 3, where he bought strychnin the first and third times and bichloride of mercury the second time. He signed his name as J M Williams, San Francisco, and said he wanted to kill rats Melmon told how Singleton then came to the store after the woman had died and asked him to keep the purchase secret.

Singleton in describing how he had mixed the drugs said he had put in the strychnin several days before to take himself.

"I didn't put in too much for I knew it would taste bitter," he said "When she came and complained of a headache I figured that if she took some I could take it afterwards myself."

Lieutenant Goff is convinced, he says, that Singleton intended to poison his wife when he bought the strychnin in November.

Neuritis, Rheumatism and Inflammation of the Nerves, Stomach Trouble Relieved.

THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIAL PROVES:

Oakland, March 3, 1919.

I suffered from neuritis (inflammation of the nerves) in the back of my head extending upward from the spine. It was so painful I almost lost consciousness and was unable to work for months. I also have rheumatism in my joints for years.

Having tried many doctors and treatments without results, I did not know what to do. My friend, Mr. Wettrig, the shoe merchant at 412 Seventh street, Oakland, who had been cured of stomach trouble and constipation by drinking Fong Wan Herb Tea, urged me to try it. Now after having drunk the herb tea for three weeks, I am perfectly well, far better than I have been for years.

Girl, 16, Leaps From Auto; Forced to Ride, Is Charge; Hurts Serious; Boys Held

SAN JOSE, Aug 3.—Ernest Brown and Silva Magietti, each 16 years of age, are being held in the city prison without bail pending the outcome of injuries received by 16-year-old Elsie Gonzales in leaping from a speeding machine into which she is said to have been forced last night by the two youths.

Miss Gonzales is lying unconscious at her home at 1031 Franklin street in East San Jose, suffering from concussion of the brain. Brown and Magietti, who are accused of forcing the girl to ride in their car against her will, reside at Williams court in East San Jose The injured girl's mother, Mrs. Stella Brown, declares she will prosecute the boys as soon as she can leave her daughter.

GIRLS MAKE STATEMENT

Statements have been obtained by the police from Miss Gonzales' sisters—Rena, aged 14, and Phillis, aged 10, who, together with Gertrude Cavelli, aged 14, and Elsie Gonzales, were on their way to a store about 8 o'clock last evening. Near the Whitton road and South Thirty-first street an auto driven by Ernest Brown, who was accompanied by Magietti, drove up and stopped. They hailed the girls and asked them to ride. The girls claim they refused to get into the car. The boys pursued them around an abandoned building at the corner of the roads All escaped except Elsie, who was seized and forced into the car. Magietti stood on the running board while the girl was placed in the seat beside the driver. After the auto was going the girl jumped suddenly and her head struck the running board as she went over the side into the roadway.

Charles Delte and Eddie Bernal, boys passing on the road, saw the girl fall and hastened to her aid. When the boys in the machine saw the other boys on th scene they turned around an offered to take the injured girl to her home, but their offer was refused Delte and Bernal then carried Miss Gonzales to her home and Dr. Paul Sanford was summoned to attend her. He stated that she was suffering from concussion of the brain and it would be some time before it would be possible to determine the extent of her injuries

EASTBAY CLAIM IS ORDERED PAID

Payment of the claim of the East Bay Water Company against the city for the "standby" fire hydrant charge for the last half of the fiscal year 1919-20, under the recent Supreme court decision upholding the State Railroad Commission in its award of the charge, has been authorized by the city council, officially bringing to a close the campaign of the city to overturn the judgment.

The appropriation passed by ordinance calls for the payment of $67,819.26 to the water company to cover the standby charge from January 1, 1920, to June 30, 1920. The amount has been held as a reserve in the fire department appropriation ... order that the claim might be met if the city was unsuccessful in defeating the railroad Commission's award.

At the same time it developed in the council discussion that the sum of $120,000 will have to be set aside in the budget for the present fiscal year to pay for the fire hydrant charge, and the proceedings involved in the payment authorized were ordered submitted to Commissioner of Revenue and Finance W. J. Baccus and the budget committee for consideration in the final preparation of the city budget.

When the ordinance was brought up for consideration yesterday, City Attorney H. L. Hagan advised the commissioners that the recent Supreme court decision confirming the decision of the Railroad Commission grating the additional charge is the final word in the contest over the charge, and that the city has no further recourse.

MY HEART and HUSBAND

By ADELE GARRISON

What Madge and Lillian Set Out to Do.

"Huh!" Dicky retorted indignantly. "I'll ask nobody's permission, not even my wife's. This is my inalienable privilege, eh, Leila?"

She looked up at him gratefully as he kissed her, while Alfred made a pretense of trying to keep him from giving the caress. But when Dicky swung around toward his friend, I saw Alfred's hand go out to his in a clasp that I knew held gratitude and appreciation. But I began to grow uneasy, for there was no sign of the reappearance of either Mother Graham or Mrs. Durkee.

As the seconds wore on into minutes and there was no sound from the hall into which Mrs. Durkee and my mother-in-law had disappeared, my anxiety increased. Despite my knowledge of Mother Graham's innate sense of justice I was not so confident as was Dicky that she had followed Mrs. Durkee in order to bring that little woman to her senses. Might she not instead—my anxiety prompted me to ask—be employed in condoling with the other woman's grief?

I signaled my apprehension to Lillian, woman fashion, with a lifting of the eyebrows. She promptly seized my cue.

"Alf," she said with the authority of long friendship, turning to him, "why don't you take Leila into the library for a few minutes and tell her the things that we all know you're dying to utter? Then by the time your mother comes back we'll all be ready for the happy ringing down of the curtain upon the fourth act."

WHERE ARE THEY?

Alfred flashed her a grateful glance.

"Come on, sweetheart," he said tenderly, and without giving Leila time to assent or dissent, he hurried her masterfully out of the room.

As the door closed behind them Lillian rose, an air of decision enveloping her.

"I guess Paw Graham and Grandpaw Spencer ought to be able to take care of one baby for a few minutes," she drawled. "But I think you'd better stay with them, Marion. They might give him pickles or salad or something."

Little Marion giggled happily, as much I was sure at this sign of her restoration to her mother's favor as at the pleasantry. It is an invariable practice of Lillian's to follow any reproof of Marion's with some pleasant quip to the child a few minutes later.

"I'll watch them mother," she carolled. "Oh, you beautiful darling!" This apostrophe she directed to the baby, and was the last thing we heard as we left the room. Lillian having "picked me up with her eyes" as we rose from the table.

We found the living room deserted, and a hasty though stealthy survey of the adjoining rooms revealed no trace of either woman.

We came down the back stairs to the kitchen, interrogated Katie in low voices.

"Sure I see them," Katie said, a note of disgust in her voice. "Dey go out to gardens behind rose hedge. That Meesis Durkee, she cry and gulp, and that mother-in-law she keep saying, 'I know, I know. I have some ting vunce.' What matter that Meesis Durkee, feel like that ven she goin' get such fine young lady like Meesis Fairfax for daughter? What she vant, eh—Queen of Belgium? That womans she married already yet."

BEHIND THE HEDGE.

"You say, they're in the garden?" I said sweetly, ignoring Katie's torrent of comment, and without further parley we left the house and took the path to the lake.

"Of course, Katie's been listening at the door again," I said nervously. "What I'm ever going to do with her I don't know. It seems as though nothing would break her of that habit."

"Do?" Lillian turned on me in amazement. "Do nothing but get down on your knees in thankfulness that she stays with you. I'm thinking seriously of carrying Betty's breakfast up to bed for her if there's no other way of inducing her to stay. You know a housekeeper is absolutely indispensable to me, and I never could break another one in. But Betty's certainly feeling her oats in these days of high wages. And from all indications Katie seems no different than usual."

"No, she doesn't," I admitted. "Eavesdropping is no new thing with her."

"I should say it was a congenital defect," Lillian said dryly. "And if she has no thought of going out and making a million dollars a minute I'd advise you to go slow on the disciplining until this domestic help situation clears a bit. It can't last long, but the atmosphere is dynamite just now."

"I know," I admitted. Then as the distant sound of voices came to us I clutched Lillian's arm, and like conspirators we moved up to the shelter of the rose hedge, from behind which the voices of my mother-in-law and Mrs. Durkee came in agitated conversation.

It was the second time that I had eavesdropped in the rose garden. The first time was an involuntary offense. But this time Lillian and I were listening deliberately, for we had to know Mother Graham's attitude before we took a hand.

Ball Feature Of Visit by Navy Cadets

Oakland society women will greet the visiting Annapolis men on Wednesday evening at a ball at the Hotel Oakland.

Three hundred midshipmen from the six ships riding in the bay will be the honored guests of the city from 10 o'clock, when they will land at the mole.

With Mrs. George Morrison of the Community Service, the moving spirit, the guests will be entertained at luncheon, with a large committee from the former canteen service assisting her.

The ball, given in the ivory room, will be a formal entertainment, directed by the Community Service. Invitations will be given to a group of girls of the service and to the patronesses, who will take their own groups of girls, making a complement of three hundred of Oakland's pulchritudinous maids to dance with the embryo officers.

The invitations will be available tomorrow morning, Mrs. George Morrison having them in charge. Mrs. John Perine, who was to have directed the ball, is in Lake county. EASTBAY BELLE TO WED SAN FRANCISCAN

A surprise to the college set came within the fortnight with the formal announcement by cards of the betrothal of Miss Barbara Champion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Champion of Fruitvale, and Hugh Eastman of San Francisco. Miss Champion is a graduate of Miss Ransom's school in Piedmont and is a cousin of Miss Katherine Bennett of Berkeley. Thursday afternoon Miss Bennett will be hostess for Miss Champion at her home.

The First Baptist church in Berkeley was the scene Saturday of the marriage of Miss Mary Jane Flint, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Flint of Dwight way, and Robert Franklyn Van Sandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Van Sandt of Shafter avenue. One hundred friends and relatives were guests at the church, the service read by Rev. David A. Pitts. Miss Dorothy Flint was her sister's only attendant and was gowned in pink. Edward D. Van Sandt was best man for his brother. An attractive feature of the church ceremony was in the serving as ushers of four of the close friends of the bride—the Misses Carolyn Rose, Lillian and Edith Herlitz and Ethel Van Sandt.

The bride wore a formal wedding gown of white beaded chiffon and the customary bridal veil of tulle. She carried a handsome shower bouquet of pastel roses.

After a honeymoon spent in the north the couple will make their home in Berkeley.

Embryo U. S. Admirals Are Entertained by Alamedans

Those two cadets above, vacationers from Annapolis, indicate just how joyful Alameda can make its guests. They were two of those entertained by the city yesterday when Mayor and Mrs. Frank Otis, pictured below, and a committee of Alamedans, welcomed them.

Afternoon at Beach, Charming Girls at Dance, Dinners, Day's Program

ALAMEDA, Aug. 3.—Blue-clad men and young girls, gay in summer dresses, combined to make the reception given yesterday afternoon by Alameda to 120 visiting midshipmen from Annapolis one of the memorable events of the city.

The visitors arrived aboard their barges at the Alameda pier at 1:15 o'clock and were then taken to Neptune Beach, where they spent the remainder of the afternoon. Here they were welcomed by Mayor Frank Otis, who expressed the pleasure it gave Alameda to entertain the men who would in a short time be senior naval officers. City Manager C. E. Hewes, Major C. E. Hickok, city engineer, and Walter Jacoby, chief of police, were other municipal officials present at the gathering.

The entire afternoon was devoted to dancing and aquatic sports. The large dance pavilion was thrown open and excellent dance music provided. A spirit of informality prevailed, etiquettes of the men and girls being done away with.

During the afternoon refreshments, consisting of punch, ice cream and home-made cake, were served by a group of women, with Mrs. Alfred Latham, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, superintending.

With the beginning of the evening hours the crowd began to wane, many of the visiting midshipmen going to Alameda homes to dinner and others to Oakland and Berkeley.

France Is Urged to Occupy Ruhr District

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Former Premier Clemenceau's newspaper, L'Homme Libre, today urged France to occupy the Ruhr district (the chief coal fields of Prussia) unless Germany withdraws the reichswehr from the East Prussian frontier at Allenstein.

The cabinet met today to consider the new situation created in Eastern Germany by the Russian advance. It was understood that the military has decided to ask the Allies to join in a firm note to Germany demanding the immediate recall of the reichswehr from the Allenstein district.

Masonic Corps Dance to Draw Many Over Bay

MISS ESTELLE GIBBEL of Berkeley, who is an active worker in arranging for the coming Masonic Ambulance Corps reunion at the Hotel St. Francis.

Ambulance Men's Reunion to Be Held August 6 At St. Francis.

Considerable local interest is being attracted by the annual reunion dance of the Masonic Ambulance Corps of California, which is to be held in the Colonial and Italian ballrooms of the Hotel St. Francis, in San Francisco, on August 6.

The Masonic Ambulance Corps was recruited early in the war, its members being all Master Masons. The corps went from San Francisco to Camp Lewis on August 4, 1917, and after eleven months' training crossed to France and saw active service in the St. Mihiel and Argonne drives.

This is the second reunion to be held since the corps demobilization.

JAPANESE DENY SMUGGLING PLOT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Denial of charges said to have been made that the Japanese associations in California have assisted in the smuggling of Japanese into the United States was made by K. Kanzeki, secretary of the Japanese Association of America, in a statement made public here.

[illegible] dispatch from Tacoma Representative Albert Johnson, chairman of the Congressional Committee on Immigration, has stated that the Japanese associations in California have been assisting the smuggling of Japanese across the Mexican border. This accusation is as astounding as it is groundless," said the statement.

"The Japanese associations have never rendered assistance in any way to Japanese who attempted to enter the United States from Mexico or any other countries. On the other hand, we have always co-operated with the immigration authorities in preventing smuggling and in locating and identifying those who have entered this country unlawfully. We are sure that the immigration authorities can bear testimony to this statement."

The statement then sets forth that the Japanese association, upon learning that the steamer Taikai-Maru, which arrived in San Francisco in April, 1919, with seven stowaways aboard, "immediately got in touch with the immigration authorities here and secured the deportation" of the stowaways. A second instance of the same nature is cited in the statement when the Eastern Mail arrived here in April, 1920, with ten stowaways, who were also deported.

"As for smuggling across the border," the statement continues, "it is something about which our association knows nothing."

British Ships Carry Big Philippine Cargo

MANILA, P. I., Aug. 3.—British ships carried nearly one-half of the total foreign trade of the Philippine Islands during the month of May, according to figures given out by the bureau of customs.

Out of the total foreign trade of $20,930,000, exports and imports, for the month, vessels flying the British flag handled shipments valued at $9,830,000, while cargoes carried in United States bottoms amounted to $8,027,000.

The Japanese were third, their ships carrying merchandise valued at $1,400,000. The balance of the foreign business was done by vessels under Dutch, Spanish, Chinese and Philippine registry.

Legion to Ask for Alien Land Laws

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3. — Delegates of the Third Congressional district to the State convention of the American Legion in San Diego, August 23-24-25, will go to the session pledged to support a resolution giving full endorsement to the initiative measure prohibiting lease or sale of agricultural land to Orientals, and calling for immediate and full exclusion of unassimable races.

This was decided here yesterday at a caucus of Legion delegates attended by representatives of twenty posts in the Third Congressional district.

Land settlement laws were denounced as unfair, and the need of a new law was urged.

Scandal Disturbs Illinois University

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Aug. 3.—President David Kinley of the University of Illinois last night announced a complaint had been made to him by a professor that certain professors had acted "unbecomingly" at parties given at the complaining teacher's home. A divorce suit and a suit for alienation of affections would be instituted, he said. President Kinley announced that Professor Leroy Wilson of the athletic department offered his resignation previous to the complaint and Basketball Coach Ralph Jones following the complaint.

O. HENRY Story a Day

HUMOR PATHOS ROMANCE

From the Cabby's Seat

Copyright, 1920, by Doubleday, Page & Co. Published by special arrangement with the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

The cabby has his point of view. It is more single-minded, perhaps, than that of a follower of any other calling. From the high, swaying seat of his hansom he looks upon his fellowmen as nomadic particles, of no account except when possessed of migratory desires. He is Jehu, and you are gods in transit. Be you president or vagabond, to cabby you are only a fare. He takes you up, cracks his whip, joggles your vetrebrae and sets you down.

When time for payment arrives, if you exhibit a familiarity with legal rates you come to know what contempt is; if you find that you have left your pocketbook behind you are made to realize the mildness of Dante's imagination.

It is not an extravagant theory that the cabby's singleness of purpose and concentrated view of life are the results of the hansom's peculiar construction. The cock-of-the-roost sits aloft like Jupiter on an unsharable seat, holding your fate between two thongs of inconstant leather. Helpless, ridiculous, confined, bobbing like a toy mandarin, you sit like a rat in a trap—you, before whom butlers cringe on solid land—and must squeak upward through a slit in your peripatetic sarcophagus to make your feeble wishes known.

Then, in a cab, you are not even an occupant; you are contents. You are a cargo at sea, and the "cherub that sits up aloft" has Davy Jnes street and number by heart.

One night there were sounds of revelry in the big brick tenement-house next door but one to McGary's Family Cafe. The sounds seemed to emanate from the apartments of the Walsh family. The sidewalk was obstructed by an assortment of interested neighbors, who opened a lane from time to time for a hurrying messenger bearing from McGary's food pertinent to festivity and diversion. The sidewalk contingent was engaged in comment and discussion from which it made no effort to eliminate the news that Norah Walsh was being married.

In the fullness of time there was an eruption of the merrymakers to the sidewalk. The uninvited guests enveloped and permeated them, and upon the night rose joyous cries, congratulations, laughter and unclassified noises born of McGary's oblations to the hymenical scene.

Close to the curb stood Jerry O'Donnovan's cab. Night-hawk was Jerry called; but no more lustrous or cleaner hansom than his ever closed its doors upon point lace and November violets. And Jerry's horse. I am within bounds when I tell you that he was stuffed with oats until one of those old ladies who leave their dishes unwashed at home and go about having expressmen arrested, would have smiled—yes, smiled—to have seen him.

Among the shifting, sonorous pulsing crowd glimpses could be had of Jerry's high hat, battered by the winds and rains of many years; of his nose like a carrot, battered by the frolicsome athletic progency of millionaires and by contumacius fares; of his brass-buttoned green coat, admired in the vicinity of McGary's. It was plain that Jerry had usurped the functions of his cab, and was carrying a "load." Indeed, the figure may be extended and he be likened to a bread-wagon if we admit the testimony of a youthful spectator, who was heard to remark "Jerry has got a bun."

From somewhere among the throng in the street or else out of the thin stream of pedestrians a young woman trioned and stood by the cab. The professional hawks [illegible] caught the movement. He made a lurch for the cab, overturning three or four onlookers and himself—no! he caught the cap of a water-plug and kept his feet. Like a sailor shinning up the ratlins during a squall Jerry mounted to his professional seat. Once he was there McGary's liquids were baffled. He see-sawed on the mizzenmast of his craft as safe as a Steeple Jack rigged to the flagpole of a skyscraper.

"Step in, lady," said Jerry, gathering his lines.

The young woman stepped into the cab; the doors shut with a bang; Jerry's whip cracked in the air; the crowd in the gutter scattered, and the fine hansom dashed away crosstown.

When the oat-sorry horse had hedged a little his first spurt of speed Jerry broke the lid of his cab and cued down through the aperture in the voice of a cracked megaphone, trying to please:

"Where, now, will you be drivin' to?"

"Anywhere you please," came up the answer, musical and contented.

"'Tis drivin' for pleasure she is," thought Jerry. And then he suggested as a matter of course:

"Tak a thrip around in the park, lady. 'Twill be illegant cool and fine."

"Just as you like," answered the fare, pleasantly.

The cab headed for Fifth Avenue and sped up that perfect street. Jerry bounced and swayed in his seat. The potent fluids of McGary were disquieting and they sent new fumes to his head. He sang an ancient song of Killisnook and brandished his whip like a baton.

Inside the cab the fare sat up straight on the cushions, looking to right and left at the lights and houses. Even in the shadowed hansom her eyes shone like stars at twilight.

When they reached Fifty-ninth street Jerry's head was bobbing and his reins were slack. But his horse turned in through the park gate and began the old familiar nocturnal round. And then the fare leaned back, entranced, and breathed deep the clean, wholesome odors of grass and leaf and bloom. And the wise beast in the shafts, knowing his ground, struck into his by-the-hour gait and kept to the right of the road.

Habit also struggled successfully against Jerry's increasing torpor. He raised the hatch of his storm-tossed vessel and made the inquiry that cabbies do make in the park.

"Like shtop at the Cas-sino, lady? Gezzer Fresh'ns, 'n fish'n the music. Ev-body shtops."

"I think that would be nice," said the fare.

They reined up with a plunge at the Casino entrance. The cab doors flew open. The fare stepped directly upon the door. At once she was caught in a web of ravishing music and dazzled by a panorama of lights and colors. Some one slipped a little square card into her hand on which was printed a number—34. She looked around and saw her cab twenty yards away already lining up in its place among the waiting mass of carriages, cabs and motor cars. And then a man who seemed to be all shirt-front danced backward before her; and next she was seated at a little table by a railing over which climbed a jassamine vine.

There seemed to be a wordless invitation to purchase; she consulted a collection of small coins in a thin purse, and received from them license to order a glass of beer. There she sat, inhaling and absorbing it all—the new-colored, new shaped life in a fairy palace in an enchanted wood.

At fifty tables sat princes and queens clad in all the silks and gems of the world. And now and then one of them would look curiously at Jerry's fare. They saw a plain figure dressed in a pink silk of the kind that is tempered by the word "foulard," and a plain face that wore a look of love of life that the queens envied.

Twice the long hands of the clock went round. Royalties thinned from their al fresco thrones, and buzzed or clattered away in their vehicles of state. The music retired into cases of wood and bags of leather and blaze. Waiters removed cloths pointedly near the plain figure sitting almost alone.

Jerry's fare rose, and held out her numbered card simply:

"Is there anything coming on the ticket?" she asked.

A waiter told her it was her cab

"Sergeant," began Jerry, "I've got a fare here that—"

check, and that she should give it to the man at the entrance. This man took it, and called the number. Only three hansoms stood in line. The driver of one of them went and routed out Jerry, asleep in his cab. He swore deeply, climbed to the captain's bridge and steered his craft to the pier. His fare entered, and the cab whirled into the cool fastnesses of the park along the shortest homeward cuts.

At the gate a glimmer of reason in the form of sudden suspicion seized upon Jerry's beclouded mind. One or two things occurred to him. He stepped his horse, raised the trap and dropped his phonographic voice, like a lead plummet, through the aperture:

"I want to see four dollars before goin' any further on th' thrip. Have ye got th' dough?"

"Four dollars!" laughed the fare, softly, "dear me, no. I've only got a few pennies and a dime or two."

Jerry shut down the trap and slashed his oat-fed horse. The clatter of hoofs strangled but could not drown the sound of his profanity. He shouted choking and gurgling curses at the starry heavens; he cut viciously with his whip at passing vehicles; he scattered fierce and ever-changing oaths and imprecations along the streets, so that a late truck driver, crawling homeward, heard and was abashed. But he knew his recourse, and made for it at a gallop.

At the house with the green lights beside the steps he pulled up. He flung wide the cab doors and tumbled heavily to the ground.

"Come on, you," he said roughly.

His fare came forth with the Casino dreamy smile still on her plain face. Jerry took her by the arm and led her into the police station. A gray-moustached sergeant looked keenly across the desk. He and the cabby were no strangers.

"Sargeant," began Jerry in his old raucous, martyred, thunderous tones of complaint. "I've got a fare here that—"

Jerry paused. He drew a knotted, red line across his brow. The fog set up by McGary was beginning to clear away.

"A fare, sergeant," he continued, with a grin, "that I want to introduce to ye. It's me wife that I married at ould man Walsh's this evening. Shake hands wid the sargeant, Norah, and we'll be off to home."

Before stepping into the cab Norah sighed profoundly.

"I've had such a nice time, Jerry," said she.

SOUTH AMERICA SENDS YOUTH HERE TO LEARN

More than 300 young men, sons of wealthy plantation owners of the Central American countries, will arrive here during the next six months and enroll as students at the University of California and other educational institutions, according to Reynaldo Tefel, a passenger from Nicaragua on the Pacific Mail steamer City of Para, just arrived.

Tefel said:

"The majority of these young men are sent here because their parents wish to give them an American business education. Before the war they were sent to Europe and European countries are keenly anxious to resume the education of the Latin Americans because this has an influence upon trade relations. It is of the utmost importance to the bay cities to hold fast to these young chaps."

Tefel is staying with his uncle, A. Saenz, retired coffee grower, 918 Lafayette ave., Alameda.

DEER RANGE BAN FEUD LOOMS ON LIVERMORE HILLS

What amounts practically to a state of hostilities between hunters of the Eastbay district and self-styled deputy sheriffs employed by the Livermore Valley Stockmen's Association to ride the ranges and order hunters from the various properties, has developed since the opening of the deer season last Sunday.

Oakland sportsmen who went into the Livermore hills to shoot deer, and who found 80 per cent of the [illegible] posted with notices forbidding hunting, are indignant over the way they allege they were ordered off the ranges by armed riders who in several instances they further allege threatened to shoot them if they did not go off at once

On the other hand, J J. Callaghan, secretary of the Livermore Valley Stockmen's Association, today defended the action of the armed riders with a statement that more than 700 acres of range land that has been guarded on the H R Patterson ranch near Livermore for cattle grazing was consumed by fire Sunday The blaze originated from the camp of a party of visiting hunters, he states who made their escape as soon as the fire started The fire raged from early Sunday morning until last night before it was checked according to Callaghan. He also stated that hunters were making the sign boards warning them not to hunt on the ranches targets for most of their volleys.

RANGE FACES CRISIS

Callaghar said that not only is the present grazing supply exhausted by these fires, but the blaze wipes out the vegetable life, making impossible protection for tender new shoots following the first rains in the fall Due to the several preceding dry seasons, he said, the grazing lands are parched and can be ignited by almost any chance spark He declared that if rains are long delayed this fall or if the season is another dry one Livermore stockmen will face the most critical period in their history

"For this reason," said Callaghan "we intend to take every precaution for the preservation of the grazing lands against the hunters"

A party of Oakland sportsmen, headed by G A Farmer 3946 Shafter avenue is preparing a complaint which will be filed the latter part of the week with the state game warden charging the cattlemen and ranchers of that section with having conspired to maintain within their ranges a supply of deer from which they can draw all year round At the same time another complaint will be filed with District Attorney Ezra Decoto charging the deputy sheriffs with prohibiting passage over the county highways that run through the hunting country which has been closed to city sportsmen

SPORTSMEN UNITE

The action of Farmer will be joined by a large number of Berkeley Alameda and Oakland sportsmen who will exert every means to force the cattlemen to withdraw their armed riders from the ranges

The huntsmen who have been denied privilege to shoot in the Livermore hills charge that the farmers and cattlemen shoot deer all season regardless of the law, and that in order to preserve the game supply for their own killing they have joined to bring about that result It will also be alleged in the complaint which will go on file according to its authors, that there are a select few who are allowed to hunt upon the grounds governed by the Livermore Valley Stockmen's Association and that those few hunt the entire year round

Only one deer was shot in the Livermore country Sunday while 15 were bagged on the Marin side according to the local sportsmen who say that there are more deer in the Livermore hills than in Marin and adjoining counties and that practically no deer were killed at the opening of the season due to the efforts of the armed riders, who they say, were numerous Every hunting party that has returned to Oakland, so far has reported having encountered one of the riders According to Farmer and his party they represent themselves as deputy sheriffs constables and deputy marshals The Farmer party was visited by a man who said he was a constable the first night in camp

Sheriff Barnet said today that if deputy sheriffs are riding the ranges he is not aware of it He said he had created no deputies for this purpose and that anyone found on the ranges is not an official representative of his office He also announced that he intends to make an investigation at once

'Any one misrepresenting himself as a deputy sheriff will be arrested, he said

HUNTERS HALTED

Three deer hunters from Richmond Floyd E Christensen, John W Noble and Clyde Hopland, were arrested near Livermore Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Eugene McGlinchey on a charge of hunting on John McGlinchey's stock range It is charged they disregarded sign boards prohibiting shooting

According to the records of Sheriff Barnet's office McGlinchey is a deputy sheriff, appointed during the recent emergency He was not appointed to serve the purpose of riding the ranges and making arrests, according to Barnet

'Of course a deputy sheriff is authorized to make an arrest whenever he finds someone violating the law But so far as appointing him for the purpose of which he served Sunday said Sheriff Barnet I have not taken any such steps and don't intend to I am going to investigate the affair

More than fifty hunters left Oakland Saturday for the hills according to the various sporting goods stores in Oakland where supplies were bought Out of that number eighteen who went into the Livermore hills reported contact with armed riders So high is the feeling against the riders that some have even gone so far as to state that they are going back next Sunday and that they will pass along the county roads and even do a little hunting regardless of the riders

Two hunting parties report having been stopped and turned back on the county road One of the hunters L R Gessler who helped to survey the road over which they were passing when ordered by a rider who held a rifle in his hand to turn back and make tracks out of there questioned the riders authority to order him to turn back on a county road The rider who refused to give his name said he owned the property and was guarding it against city men who came out there to hunt

Yes, His Case Is Called; Shave Puts Him Behind Bars

Frank Coakley charged with robbing the room of Frank Silva, was in Judge Samuels' court this morning. He had been out on bonds and wanted to be on hand early and have the trial over with. He found Silva, the main witness for the prosecution, there ahead of him. They [illegible] way of opening the remarks, said he needed a shave.

"Why don't you get one," said Silva "They won't call your case for an hour Just to make sure, I'll go with you and then they can't call it until we come back'

An hour later both the defendant and the accusing witness came into court, Coakley clean shaven, announced that he "was back'

"On your way," said the bailiff "You want to show up next time The judge has just issued a bench warrant for you Your bonds are revoked, and you're going to jail until your case can be heard

"That's the most expensive shave I ever had," said Coakley as the jail elevator door clanged behind him

DANCER AND MEN HELD; COMPANION IS NEAR DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3. — Lucille Sherwin, 1136 O'Farrell stret, known as a dancer in downtown cafes, and two male companions were arrested early today and are being held by the police pending an investigation into the manner in which Clarence Ray, 60 years of age, employed on a ranch near Santa Cruz, was seriously, if not fatally injured early this morning a few minutes before an automobile containing Ray, the two men and the woman capsized on the Great Highway near Golden Gate park. The woman's companions gave the names of Ben Wilhoit and Cecil Jacka.

Ray is at the Park Emergency Hospital suffering from a fractured skull and other injuries. His three companions are charged with being drunk in a public place. Wilhoit faces an additional charge of reckless driving. He is a jitney bus driver. Jacka also is a driver and owns the machine in which the four were riding at the time of the accident.

According to the woman and her companions, they met Ray in Santa Cruz and invited him to accompany them on an auto trip to San Francisco. While going through Golden Gate park last night, they assert, Ray, without warning, jumped from the machine. They said they picked him up and were taking him to the Park Hospital when the machine capsized.

According to the police, however, the machine was traveling at high speed down the boulevard and in a direction away from the Park Hospital. When the automobile capsized its occupants were thrown clear and escaped without injury.

The police said Wilhoit and Jacka each had in his possession a watch which the men claimed had ben given to them by Ray. Ray partially regained consciousness shortly before noon. He was unable to give any coherent accout of how he met his injuries, but denies he had given the two watches to Wilhoit and Jacka.

Colby Asks Stephens To Act in Ship Theft

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3—Governor Stephens has been asked by Bainbridge Colby, United States secretary of State, to intervene in the Russian naval transport case at San Francisco, in seeking to have the civil authorities there quash the proceedings taken following a shooting and alleged mutiny of the crew of the vessel as the transport was about to leave the harbor for the Mare Island navy yard July 24.

The governor referred the matter to his executive secretary Martin Madsen, who expects to dispose of the case in San Francisco today.

Federal Officials Refuse Aid To H. C. L. War, Say Women

Charges that the United States district attorney's office in San Francisco had failed to support the anti-high cost of living program; that it had done "politics"; that the federal fair trade commission had interfered in campaigns to keep down prices; and protests at the advanced cost of bread, milk and meat marked the session late yesterday of the Oakland State Housewives' league, in the city hall.

Resolutions were adopted pledging the members not to pay over 15 cents a quart for milk, or 15 cents for a large loaf, and to reduce meat consumption. Propaganda calling upon all women to join in their campaign will be carried on.

AID IS REFUSED

"The United States district attorney's office is the only place from which we can receive help," declared Mrs. E. F. Scanlon of San Francisco, state president, at yesterday's meeting. "California has no law to curb the profiteer. We have had no support from the federal offices. They have played politics and ordered the entire organization into the Palmer camp to win for him the nomination for the presidency of the United States.

"We believed that when Mrs. Annette Adams went to Washington, they would cease this game. We still wait. We women are doing the work that the United States district attorney's office should be doing.

"It is time," said Mrs. Scanlon, "that the government should show us a program of economy. They are still holding all over the nation employees to build up a political machine. The federal authorities have enforced the Lever act to get the little fellows, but protect the big."

Mrs. Scanlon charged that the fair trade commission had interferred and that the result was that the price of milk had gone up.

GOATS MAY AID

A volunteer motor corps and milk canteen was suggested in addition to a "keep a goat" campaign as effective methods of meeting present high costs. Goats giving from two to three quarts of milk a day may be kept for from $2 to $3 a month, it was asserted. A "baking day" is under consideration. A home bakery will be installed in the State Housewives' League market in Sixth street.

Housewives' leagues about the bay and representatives of forty producers' associations in the state will meet in convention in San Francisco next month to outline a campaign for the passage of a state marketing bill which is expected to check profiteering and hoarding and improve distribution. The Oakland state league has been invited to participate.

Two Fruitvale dairies were named as offering inspected raw milk at 14 cents a quart.

The promised campaign to reduce consumption of milk should prices go up was inaugurated today by the auxiliaries of the California Federation of Housewives' Leagues in Oakland, Berkeley and San Francisco. The distribution of propaganda cards reciting the advance in prices constituted the opening attack. Oakland and San Francisco leagues have undertaken to place these cards in the hands of the homekeepers. In Berkeley workers distributed today more than 100.

PASTEURIZATION MEETING

BERKELEY, Aug. 3.—The Berkeley council today set August 20 as the time for holding a public hearing into the question of pasteurization of milk. At today's meeting of the council Mrs. J. Koughan, former president of the Berkeley Federation of Mothers' Clubs, appeared and protested against the proposal of the Berkeley Housewives' League to have milk pasteurized outside of this city in order to secure a reduction in the cost to the consumer. In order to give both sides an opportunity to be heard the public meeting was ordered.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 3.—A meeting of the fair price and milk investigation committees of the Alameda Housewives' League was held this afternoon, with Mrs. May Larkin Marston, chairman, presiding. Further plans for the lessening of living costs were made, and developments will be announced at a regular meeting of the league Thursday afternoon at the Knights of Pythias hall.

PATROLMAN MAY LOSE HIS STAR

Further developments in the police department shakeup, promised by Commissioner F. F. Morse, materialized today, when the department head brought to an end an investigation that is expected to result in the suspension or discharge from the force of Patrolman Michael Connelly, under a report of the Department of Justice authorities against the local police officer's conduct in a prohibition enforcement raid in this city several months ago.

The local raid in which Connelly is alleged to have been involved has already resulted in an airing before the grand jury in San Francisco, and proceedings against a government revenue officer. Subsequently to those proceedings Commissioner Morse declared that he had been furnished with a report against Connelly's conduct in the case by the officials of the Department of Justice.

Accused of having violated the municipal laws governing the operations of pawnshops, M. E. Grossman, proprietor of an establishment at 916 Broadway, was today cited by the City Council to appear Thursday morning to show cause why his pawnbroker's license should not be revoked.

Holder of Altitude Record Has Tumble

DAYTON, O., Aug. 3.—Captain R. W. Schroeder, holder of the world's altitude record, was injured about the head last night when the racing plane he was testing crashed into an automobile at Wilbur Wright field. He had landed and was running up to the hangar. His worst injury is a cut over the left eye.

STATE REFUSES BAN ON GAUZY WOODS NYMPHS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Thinly clad nymphs and sayrs may disport themselves at will beneath the sunlight—or moonlight, for that matter—on Mount Tamalpais, without interference from the State Railroad Commission.

That was made certain today by a ruling the commission handed down in the case of Elizabeth Rogers, demanding that the commission force the Northwestern Pacific Railway to close four stations on its line.

She alleged that patrons of the road getting off at those four stations made far too merry and oft times forgot their hand baggage and wardrobes, to the great disturbance of the countryside.

The commission ruled today it had no authority over such matters.

CONTEST OF WILL FOLLOWS DIVORCE

How a will contest has grown out of the divorce action brought by Rev. Andrew MacMurtry, former Presbyterian minister of this vicinity in 1912, which resulted in his wife getting the decree after which she filed suit for alienation of affections against the woman who is now his present wife, was revealed in court today.

Depositions of Mrs. Annie Wilson, 1512 Twenty-seventh avenue, the former wife of Rev. MacMurtry, and Mrs. Mona Hamilton, a daughter, were taken before Judge T. W. Harris to be used as evidence in the will contest now being fought out in Iowa.

The will contest was brought by Mrs. Emily J. MacMurtry, present wife of the minister and defendant in the alienation suit, against her brothers, Henry and William Jahn, in which she charges them with using undue influence on her father, Claus Jahn, to such an extent that he cut her out of his will.

It is claimed that the two brothers in 1912 came to Oakland and sought to have Rev. MacMurtry stop the divorce action against his wife to prevent him from marrying their sister and that failing in this they used their influence to have her disinherited. Incidentally it was shown that Rev. MacMurtry, who went from here to Manilla, Iowa, was ejected from the church as a minister because of the notoriety which grew out of the divorce proceedings and his remarriage.

The records show that Mrs. Wilson, then the wife of MacMurtry, received the decree on her cross-complaint, also that she obtained $1000 damages from the present wife on her suit for alienation of affections.

GIRL, WHO HID OUT IN WOODS, IS GONE AGAIN

HAYWARD, Aug. 3. — Cecelia [illegible] who ran away last January and was found in a half-starved condition several days later in the hills, disappeared again yesterday.

With her grandmather she had been working in the cannery here. Yesterday afternoon she asked her grandmother for the key to their home, near the cannery. When she failed to reappear an investigation was made and it was discovered that she had taken several articles of clothing and had disappeared.

On January 14 she was found hiding under the roots of a tree in the bed of a creek near San Leandro after she had dwelt a week in the woods. She was near death and was only revived after careful nursing at the Alameda county hospital.

Commission Tables Fund for Middies

An appropriation of $300 for the Community Service, to be used in the entertainment tomorrow of the Annapolis midshipmen who will be the city's guests during the day, was held up this morning in the City Council when an appropriating resolution introduced by Commissioner of Revenue and Finance W. J. Baccus was questioned by Commissioner W. H. Edwards, and supplanted by a motion laying the issue over until tomorrow for further information as to the backers of the entertainment.

The appropriation was recommended by Commissioner Baccus following a request made yesterday by Captain H. C. Stone, Community Service organizer.

Motion of Commissioner Edwards to lay the request on the table was supported by Commissioners. F. F. Morse and Frederick Soderberg and passed over the heads of Commissioner Baccus and Mayor John L. Davie.

Vancouver Teacher Believed Drowned

SEATTLE, Aug. 3.—Disappearance from home last Thursday of Proffessor William Herrick of the commercial department of the Vancouver high school, is believed to be cleared up by the partial identification of the body of a man found washed up on the shores of Lake Washington. The name Herrick, written in ink in the dead man's vest, the initials W. V. H. in the hat and an H on a handkerchief, coupled with the report of Professor Herrick's disappearance, made identification possible.

Annex Is Acquired and Other Changes Made by Washington Street Firm

After several weeks of preparation, Marymont and Upright today announced the opening of an addition to the selling space of their department store, occasioning the removal of the fourth floor ready-to-wear shops to a new section opening off the third floor cloak and suit salesrooms. Incident to the opening of the annex on the third floor rooms, the store announced the removal of the drapery department to its remodelled fourth floor, with an all-day daylight showroom devoted to this merchandise.

The store is also opening a department devoted to the showing of metal beds, a department of wicker furniture, and of bed springs, mattresses and floor lamps. The fourth floor, as it has been altered for the accommodation of this merchandise, is well adapted to display. The formal opening is set for tomorrow.

MEXICANS DROP GUNS FOR PLOWS

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—More than 5000 officers and privates in the Mexican army retired from military service in the first week of July, according to El Heraldo.

This general withdrawal from the army is the result of a campaign recently launched by the government to induce a large part of the soldiers of Mexico "to abandon the rifle for the plow," as the Mexican press is fond of phrasing it.

The government's campaign for a smaller army is due to the realization that vast tracts of valuable agricultural land are in urgent need of development and that many factories in Mexico are short of help. It is pointed out that the present military situation is such as to require the services of not more than 50,000 men, thus permitting the other thousands of men under arms to devote themselves to the task of economically rehabilitating the country.

The recent uprising of Generals Carlos Osuna and Jesus H. Guahardo have not altered the government's determination to reduce the personnel of the army. According to General Antonio I. Villarreal, secretary of agriculture and development, these two movements do not "present a military problem."

PARISIAN GOWN, BOUGHT IN 1914, REACHES OWNER

PASADENA, Aug. 3.—After being sent from place to place in war stricken Europe for six years, and after three voyages across the Atlantic, a beautiful beaded evening gown, purchased in Paris six years ago, has just reached its owner, Mrs. Frank F. Sheldon of Kansas City, who is at the Hotel Vista del Arroyo with her husband on her honeymoon.

The gown was bought before the war started when Mrs. Sheldon, then Miss Dalmeyer, was in Paris with her family. They started on to Berlin, not taking the war rumors seriously, and left orders that the gown be forwarded there. It was sent on by the Paris firm just a day or two before war was declared. Miss Dalmeyer and her family left Germany and traveled to Holland on a refugee train, finally reaching home safely.

Meanwhile the gown got as far as Liege, Belgium, was stopped there by the war, became the cause of inquiry by American consular agents, and finally, two years and a half later, in the height of the war, reached the Berlin hotel to which it was directed.

The gown was held in Berlin until the war was over.

U.S. FURNISHES HUSBANDS FOR EUROPE'S MAIDS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—America, only nation in which men outnumber women, is now supplying husbands for women of Europe, where there are not enough males to go around, reports to the immigration bureau indicated today.

Approximately 434,000 persons, mostly men, sailed from the United States in the year ending with June, according to reports to Commissioner General Caminetti of the immigration bureau.

Furthermore, single European women and women widowed by the war, are rushing to America from Europe, in the hope of securing husbands, reports indicate.

Stocking Mystery Suicide Identified

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The body of the woman found late yesterday on the ocean beach near the Cliff House was identified today as that of Miss Clara M. Herre, aged 48, a stenographer of San Jose.

The identification was made by Edward M. Wilcox of San Jose.

When the body was found a mask, made from a silk stocking, covered the face. Police expressed the opinion that the woman had committed suicide

JAPAN FIRM ON SAGHALIN STAND

TOKYO, Aug. 3 (By The Associated Press).—There is no indication that Japan will refrain from carrying out military arrangements she has made in dealing with the problems arising out of conditions in Siberia.

The government some time ago outlined to the world powers its policy regarding Siberia, and its forthcoming note to Washington will amplify statements it has sent to European capitals. This note, it is understood, will point out the purely temporary character of the occupation by the Japanese of points in the Saghalin district.

Possible misunderstandings abroad are apprehended here because of the fact that the city of Nikolaievsk on the Siberian main land coast will be under control of Japanese military detachments. Nikolaievsk was formerly a part of the administrative district of Primorskaia, which was in turn, under the jurisdiction of the Rusisan war time province.

Japanese officials have been careful to explain to foreign newspaper correspondents her move was within her rights in asking Japan to define her policy regarding Siberia, as the two nations sent troops to Siberia under an arrangement made at the suggestion of the Washington government.

Japanese Fined for Selling Wormy Fruit

The statutes which prevent fruit ranchers from selling worm infected fruit to anyone but cruit canneries, which practically can make their own price is unconstitutional as being class legislation, in the opinion of Justice of the Peace Harry Pulcifer, who today fined K. Yamaguchi, a Japanese rancher of San Leandro, $50 for selling three boxes of wormy apples to George Delanes, Oakland dealer. Judge Pulcifer fined the Japanese according to the law, but he expressed the belief that the law was unconstitutional for the reason stated.

Canada Going After European Settlers

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 3.—J. A. Calder, minister of immigration and colonization, soon will go to Europe to reorganize Canadian immigration agencies there, it was recently announced here.

Except for inspection of British war veterans for land settlement and the bringing in of domestics, little has been done to procure new settlers from Europe since the war began. Immigrants now must have $250 or produce proof that they are going to work before being admitted.

Laborer Is Killed In Gambling Row

FRESNO, Aug. 3. — T. Ujeda, Japanese farm laborer of Selma, was found dead in an alley in the Chinatown district of Selma. He had been shot twice, both bullets piercing his heart. The police believe that Ujida was killed following an argument over a card game and later removed from the gambling den to the alley.

City Contracts With Roosevelt Hospital

BERKELEY, Aug. 3.—The council today entered into a contract with the Roosevelt Hospital to do emergency work for this month at the price of $250. Previously the work was done for $150 per month, but the hospital demanded an increase.

POISON OAK OR IVY NO LONGER TO BE DREADED

Anyone who has ever experienced oak or ivy poisoning will be grateful to know that this extremely painful and irritating annoyance need not be feared, or longer remain troublesome. The pain, itching, fever and irritation disappear almost like magic with a few applications of Santiseptic Lotion, and the eruptions and redness of the skin soon follow. Timely use of Santiseptic will even prevent the poisoning in many cases.

"Santiseptic Lotion is the greatest remedy on earth for poison oak," says Carl Larson of Canyonville, Ore. "I have had it in all forms—on my face, arms and body. Nothing gave me relief until I tried Santiseptic. I would not now be without Santiseptic in my home." Mr. Larson's experience is but typical of thousands of others who have had the misfortune to become infected with poison ivy.

Santiseptic also heals other skin irritations, such as sunburn, windburn, chafing, fever and cold sores, flea and other insect bites. It is a remarkable soothing and healing lotion. Men use it after shaving and women for the complexion and baby's skin.

Santiseptic is easily procured at most drug stores and toilet goods counters and costs but fifty cents.—Advertisement.

TELLS HOW TO BEAUTIFY HAIR
Has Devoted Over Forty Years of Study to Hair and Scalp Troubles

Prof. John H. Austin, bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist of Chicago, who now has offices at The Owl Drug Co., says that it is really remarkable that so few men and women nowadays possess an abundance of beautiful, healthy hair. Prof. Austin is probably right in saying that so little is generally known about the hair and scalp that when a little trouble actually arises the person afflicted turns to anything recommended by anybody, and usually the results are disastrous.

Science has proved that different ailments of the hair and scalp require different treatments. The particular trouble with which your hair or scalp is afflicted must be known before it can be intelligently treated.

Guesswork is of no practical value concerning hair troubles. Prof. Austin has found that only a powerful microscope can determine the exact trouble with which the hair or scalp is afflicted.

Prof. Austin says that the use of mange cures, dandruff cures, hair tonics, vaseline and elixirs is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.

FREE MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION of the hair and scalp. Both men and women invited. Private offices at The Owl Drug Co., 14th and Washington, Oakland; 778 Market St., San Francisco. Hours 10 to 12 and 2 to 4. —Advertisement.

HARDING IS TOLD G.O.P. OUTLOOK SPELLS VICTORY

By J. BART CAMPBELL,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

MARION, O., Aug. 3.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, was to put in another busy day going over reports of campaign activities, which are pouring in upon him by telegraph and mail, and in conferring with Republican leaders.

Senator Harry S. New of Indiana, who is in charge of the speakers' bureau of the Republican campaign, and Harry M. Daugherty, the Harding pre-convention campaign manager, were among the visitors scheduled to confer with him.

The senator was also to assist in the preparation of the address he will deliver to a delegation from Wayne county, Ohio, tomorrow. He and his advisors were said to be planning to give a real impetus to his front porch campaign by having him deliver a series of speeches here in the near future which would have the kind of "punch" to them his Democratic opponents could not sidestep.

CANDIDATE ENCOURAGED

It was stated that the senator felt "greatly encouraged" by reports he had received regarding the "favorable reception" of his speech of acceptance throughout the country and by "other indications of a reunited Republican party swinging in behind his candidacy."

At Harding headquarters here the statement was also made that Senator Borah of Idaho and other progressive Republican leaders were already engaged in campaigning actively for the Republican ticket, and that the rank and file of progressives were "falling in line for Harding and Coolidge."

BOURBONS HAVE STUDIO

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—Democratic national headquarters in the Grand Central Palace is the first political headquarters to have its own "movie" studio, it was discovered when "close ups" of Franklin D. Roosevelt, candidate for vice-president, and Chairman George White of the national committee, were wanted.

A spacious balcony or promenade with massive stone pillars and a cut stone railing extends along the side of the building outside of headquarters. Together with the skyline of the city it provides a splendid background for pictures.

Higher Rates to Increase H. C. L.?

Economist Says No, Attorney Yes

Lauck Declares Increase in Costs Will Be Due Only to Profiteering

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Any appreciable increase in the cost of living following the rise in rail road rates will be due to deliberate profiteering and not a legitimate consequence of the rate boost, W. Jewett Lauck, economist representing railroad labor organizations, declared here today.

Lauck asserted that the public need not fear that food and clothing will go up in price unless the freight rate increases are multipued by four or five when passed on to the consumer.

"The great industries of this country," said Lauck, "could well afford to deduct from the price of their products this freight rate increase.

"Including all of the transportation costs entering into wholesale meat prices, the maximum effect of the advance would be less than 1 cent a pound.

"On flour the increased cost at Philadelphia would be about 33 cents a barrel. On a suit of clothes made in the east and sold on the Pacific coast, the added freight would be about 9 cents."

He forecast an increase of 75 cents to $1.35 a ton on coal.

Revelry in High Prices and High Wages May Be Precipitated, Says Thorne

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The freight rate increases granted the railways by the Interstate Commerce Commission "may precipitate a revelry of high prices and high wages," according to Clifford Thorne, prominent attorney and transportation authority.

In an interview today, Thorne commended the action of the commission in wiping out all "fictitious capitalization" in tentatively fixing the value of the railways but declared that in the matter of rate adjustments the commission "has not been as considerate of the rights and interests of shippers as was the railroad administration.

"One very far reaching result of the decision may be economic," Thorne said. "It will probably stop the movement recently inaugurated for reducing the prices of the necessities of life. It is possible the decision may precipitate a revelry of high prices and high wages. This, however, will not apply to grain and live stock, as they are so thoroughly dependent upon world conditions.

"Improved railway service, as a result of the decision, is earnestly to be desired. Shippers should co-operate to the limit in the heavy loading and prompt release of cars. It is now up to the railroads to make good."

Increased Freight Rates Go Into Effect September 1

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (by the Associated Press).—Readjustment of the whole rate structure of the nation's transportation systems was started today with a view of putting into effect by September 1 the freight, passenger, Pullman, excess baggage and milk-rate increases authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission. While traffic experts are working on general rate conditions the carriers will make application to the various state commissions for intrastate rates to correspond to those interstate rates. Requests for advances in passenger, Pullman, milk and excess baggage tariffs are expected to be the same for all states as the increases in these charges authorized by the federal commission were general for the entire country. They were 20 per cent on passenger, milk and excess baggage charges and 50 per cent in rates for sleeping and parlor car space.

In the case of freight rates the states will be asked to advance these tariffs to correspond with the increases.

The federal increases authorized are 40 per cent in Eastern territory, 25 in Southern and Mountain-Pacific territory and 35 in Western territory. The railroad executives have not calculated the total from the rate increases but the sum has been unofficially approximated at one billion and a half dollars. The commission's decision was intended to so fix rates as to give the roads the 6 per cent return on their aggregate value permitted by the transportation act.

FREIGHT RAISES ONLY

Coastwise and inland steamship companies and electric lines are permitted under the Interstate Commerce Commission decision to raise only freight rates. Nothing was said by the commission as to passenger rates on the steamboat lines, but the decision did say specifically that the freight rate increase granted electric railroad lines was "not to be construed as an expression of disapproval of increases they made."

While the commission authorized the freight increases to the railroad lines, the increase of freight moving from one territory to another would be 33 1-3 per cent. Creation by the commission on its own motion of the Mountain-Pacific territory was unexpected. The Western roads as a whole had joined in asking for an increase of 32.3 per cent, but the Southwestern lines later at the public hearing asked that they be given separate treatment, and a freight increase had been opposed by the many shippers in Western states. The record shows, said the commission, that the railroads serving the territories of Colorado common points, especially the so-called transcontinental railroads as a whole, are in a substantially better financial condition than other carriers in the Western territory. It also shows that the rates, generally speaking, are materially higher in the region west of the Colorado common points than in the part of the Western territories lying east of there.

"Considering the whole situation, it is our view that the territory west of the Colorado common points and the traffic to and from that territory may properly be given separate treatment," says the commission. The surcharge of 50 per cent on sleeping and parlor car space is to accrue wholly to the railroads. This charge was opposed by the Pullman Company on the ground that it would reduce the travel in cars of that type.

MAY REDUCE H. C. L.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (United Press).—Increased railway freight rates eventually will bring about a reduction in the cost of living, in the opinion of Hale Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

While there will be a slight increase of some commodities, predicated on the rate increase, this will be negligible, Holden said.

"The increased freight rates will allow the railroads to restore their old efficiency in transportation, and this eventually will mean faster and wider distribution of foodstuffs, fuel and other necessaries," Holden said.

GOVERNOR COX AND ROOSEVELT TO COME WEST

DAYTON, O., Aug. 3.—Governor Cox plans to start his first extensive speaking trip week after next, probably in northern New York and New England.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, vice presidential nominee, is to be Governor Cox's guest for the nomination. Although the governor had hoped to attend Roosevelt's notification Aug. 9 at Hyde Park, N. Y., conferences next week with party leaders on campaign plans and arranging his own speaking itinerary may preclude the trip.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Franklin D. Roosevelt will make a campaign tour of the West at once. The itinerary includes Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas, then:

Aug. 20, Seattle and Tacoma.
Aug. 21, Portland, Ore.
Aug. 23, San Francisco.
Aug. 24, Sacramento.
Aug. 25, in Nevada, probably Reno and Carson City.
Aug. 26, Salt Lake City and Ogden.

It was also announced that Senator Harrison and George White, Chairman of the National Committee, will spend August 6, 7 and 8 in Dayton, O., conferring with Governor Cox and other members of White's advisory committee, laying out plans for a western trip by the presidential candidate.

POLITICAL SPOTLIGHT

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice presidential nominee, will open his first campaign tour in Chicago August 11, two days after his notification ceremonies at Hyde Park, N. Y. From Chicago he will start for San Francisco.

DAYTON, O., Aug. 3.—Governor Cox today accepted an invitation from Judge G. B. Latham, of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce, to speak before that organization early in October.

Political Notes

Four counties of the northern part of the State—Mendocino, Humboldt, Napa and Lake—will be visited this week by A. J. Wallace, Republican candidate for United States Senator. The candidate will arrive in San Francisco the latter part of the week and is scheduled to address meetings at Santa Cruz, Salinas, Oakland and San Jose before departing for Richmond, where he will be the principal speaker next Monday at a mass meeting to be followed by another meeting in Watsonville on Tuesday and at Pacific Grove on Wednesday.

Wallace headquarters in San Francisco have been advised that the Los Angeles Express has thrown its support to Wallace.

Earl Curzon Thinks League Will Work

LONDON, Aug. —"The League of Nations was not set up as a fully developed organ of international government. To attribute it to tasks which at the outset are beyond its capacity are to handicap rather than to assist it."

That is how Earl Curzon, of Kedleston, British Foreign Minister, views the present agitation to give the league more authority and using it as a means for which it was intended—to stop wars.

"I firmly believe," he says, "that the league has come to stay and that it will eventually fulfill the highest expectations. But before it can do that it must develop authority and prestige, which it can only derive from the weight of public opinion.

"The duty of its friends is to make its aims and purpose a habit of thought with the voters of the country."

Road Will Reward Heavier Car Loading

Prizes are to be offered its station agents on the Pacific Coast by the Southern Pacific Company in the heavier car loading campaign. W. Merrimam of the Southern Pacific has announced that a first prize of $50 and a second prize of $25 will be awarded the agents who show the heaviest loading in each of seventeen different commodities. An additional prize will go to the agent who makes the greatest improvement over his record for the corresponding period of 1918. Five credits will be allowed each station for each ton per car increase over the system average for corresponding period of 1918, and two credits for each per cent of increase load to capacity and lesser increases in proportion.

Filipino Cane Men' Fast Gain Wealth

MANILA, P. I., Aug. 3.—The sugar planters of the island of Negros will be so well off in another year that they will not know what to do with their money, in the opinion of Venancis Concepcion, president of the Philippine National Bank, who has just returned from a visit to that island.

"Of the $12,000,000 which my bank loaned the planters on the island of Negros last year, $7,000,000 will be paid out of the 1920 sugar crop and the remainder out of the 1921 crop," said Concepcion.

"Negros needs 1500 tractors, and with that number the acreage in sugar next year could be more than doubled. I estimate the sugar crop for the island this year at 210,000 tons."

Bronze Statue Will Honor General Otis

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—A group sculpture, erected in memory of General Harrison Gray Otis, editor and publisher of the Los Angeles Times, by the Harrison Gray Otis memorial association, will be unveiled this afternoon. The sculpture is the work of Prince Paul Troubetsky. Its central piece is a large bronze figure of General Otis. On one side is a soldier, on the other a newsboy. The site is near Westlake park, where the late general resided.

Harding Works as Printer Again as Movie Men Click

MARION, Aug. 3.—Senator Harding is going to prove to the public that he is a real printer. Today he threw aside his coat, rolled up his sleeves and "made up" the first page of his paper while motion picture machines recorded his actions.

All work at the newspaper plant suspended while the pictures were being made and employees gathered about to see their boss working while they loafed. The senator kept up a rapid fire of conversation with his foreman while at work.

COX AGREES WITH WILSON ON LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—Governor Cox's speech accepting the Democratic nomination for president, now virtually a matter of record through the circulation of advance copies, will have the approval of President Wilson, according to men "close up" in administration circles.

While no one is admitting that any advance copy of the governor's speech was delivered to the White House, it is generally agreed that the president by now has a fair idea of the trend of the declaration.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, who led the fight in the senate for ratification of the peace treaty without reservations, returned to Washington last night declaring that Governor Cox is for the Wilson interpretation of the covenant and that Democratic National Chairman White is mistaken in pronouncing the league not the paramount issue. The senator said:

"Cox has always been a supporter of Wilson on the League of Nations. Of course when he became a candidate he suggested some reservations, but he can really point back and show that he is a friend of the League.

Japan Steel Works May Amalgamate

TOKYO, Aug. 3.—Amalgamation of all the steel works in Japan, in order to tide over the present trade conditions, is reported under consideration by the Japanese government, the authorities of which are said to be investigating the possibility of a nation-wide merger.

The iron market continues weak, owing to the slump in quotations and the decrease in demand, although the amount of iron imported from the United States aggregates nearly 2000 tons a month, in accordance with the contracts signed last year.

In these circumstances pessimistic are being now entertained by some of the iron dealers, and a number of the steel works have been obliged to close. The output for the first half of the current year, therefore, is expected to result in a decrease of nearly 30 per cent, with even worse prospects for the latter half of the year.

Car Drags Go-Cart; Baby Escapes Injury

RACINE, Wis., Aug. 3.—A go-cart containing a two-year-old child rolled off a sidewalk here today and its handle was caught by a passing interurban car. The cart was dragged three blocks before frantic pedestrians' signals stopped the car. The baby was unharmed.

FRANCE BUYS EXCHANGE TO PAY U.S. DEBT

PARIS, Aug. 3.—The ministry of finance has virtually completed buying sufficient American exchange to meet obligations falling due in the United States October 1. The Anglo-French loan of $500,000,000, of which the French share is $250,000,000, is due on that date. It is explained in high financial circles that the ministry's progress in the matter accounts for the recent rise of the dollar.

SMUGGLING IS CHARGED.

A news despatch from Tacoma, Washington, is to the effect that Representative Albert Johnson, chairman of the congressional committee which is investigating the Japanese situation on the Pacific Coast, has issued a public statement to the effect that the committee has located an "underground system" by which Japanese are smuggled into this country in violation of the immigration laws and the so-called gentlemen's agreement between the United States and the Japanese governments. Mr. Johnson's statement shows careful preparation. If true, and there is no reason to doubt it at this time, the committee has uncovered a very interesting organized system for hoodwinking the United States. It calls for prompt action on the part of the government at Washington.

According to Mr. Johnson, the Japanese underground system begins at Yokohama. Thence it extends to Honolulu and on across the Pacific to Guaymas, Mexico, on the Gulf of California. From the latter port, either by water or across the Mexican border, the Japanese are smuggled into the United States. A perfect system of escort is said to exist at Honolulu and Guaymas, where posts have been clandestinely established to take care of the details of the smuggling. Mexican guards are reported to have been bribed to let the Japanese cross the border, the usual fee being $10.

After the forbidden alien has arrived in California, Oregon or Washington, he is taken in charge, according to Congressman Johnson's statement, by a branch of the Japanese association, a bank account is established in his name and he is advised to keep out of sight for five years, at the end of which his legal residence may be established before the authorities by prepared evidence. The committee is positive that the Japanese associations are aiding in the surreptitious and illegal entry of Japanese into the United States. It is asserted as a fact that these associations protect their countrymen who are smuggled in.

These disclosures by the congressional committee must in all conscience be followed by action calculated to break up the system of smuggling aliens barred by the immigration laws into this country. Owing to the high and official authority of their authorship they cannot be permitted to go unnoticed. All the explanations which it is possible for Tokyo to make cannot remove the conviction that the Japanese government is cognizant of all the details of the smuggling system, and that it has lent and is lending it encouragement and positive aid.

There are two phases to the Japanese problem in California. One is the treatment of Japanese who have come here lawfully and whose continued residence here is lawful. It is the duty which every thinking citizen recognizes to accord these lawful entrants and residents every consideration the law contemplates and to grant them the fair and hospitable consideration which the spirit of the law implies.

The other phase of the problem is those Japanese who have gained entry into the country by evading the law and in violation of the agreement between the United States and Japan, and the continuance of the system of smuggling which is aided by the semi-official Japanese associations and approved by the government at Tokyo.

As to the latter phase of the problem there can be no division of American opinion. It must be eradicated and in such fashion that it will not again bother the people of the Pacific Coast. If it is possible to segregate those Japanese who have entered illegally they should be deported at once and their property taken in charge by the government and held for appropriate disposition. In addition, those other Japanese in the State who have conspired to violate the laws and evade the international agreement should be brought to trial and if the gravity of their offense warrants they should be deported. And in addition the Japanese government should be informed with the sharpness which the situation justifies that its known tolerance and connivance with the smuggling system is an evidence of bad faith and distinct unfriendliness.

The congressional committee has reported its discovery of evidence of the illegal entry of aliens which could not be effected without the knowledge and acquiescence of the Japanese government. The Secretary of State should not delay to place the evidence before the Japanese government. In the meantime the Department of Justice and the Bureau of Immigration have the opportunity to break up the smuggling system and to more effectively guard against the illegal entry of alien Orientals.

EMANCIPATION THE RULE

"The Allies are clear that the time has come when it is necessary to put an end once and for all to the empire of the Turks over other nations. * * * The Allied Powers have resolved to emancipate all areas inhabited by a non-Turkish majority from Turkish rule."

These extracts from the note of the supreme council of the Allied Powers to the Turkish government sets forth in emphatic fashion the attitude of the Allies regarding Turkey in the future. The Sultan's government is no longer able to plead lack of understanding, for the note of ultimatum was brutally frank, closing with the declaration that if the treaty was not signed and full effect given it, the Allies may reconsider the arrangement by ejecting the Turk from Europe once and for all.

Under this rule of emancipation for non Turkish majorities, Armenia, Thrace, Smyrna, Syria and the Arab country have been detached from Turkish rule. Constantinople, located in Europe, is, however, still the capital of the Sultan's empire, although the remnant of Turkish territory in Europe is reduced to a few square miles.

Future location of the Turkish capital is still a question to be determined, but there is an obvious disposition on the part of the Allies to save Ottoman pride and "face," the dignity of a nation that entered the war without the slightest provocation and that murdered over 800,000 innocent noncombatant Armenians and Syrians before the war came to an end!

REFUGEE CHILDREN.

Although the homeless children which the great war bequeathed to its survivors are to be numbered by the hundreds of thousands, the arrival of the 790 Russian waifs in San Francisco bay poignantly brings the tragedy of it all to our attention. These children are refugees from the Bolshevik madness of rapine and assassination. They have been hauled from pillar to post, from Petrograd and Moscow, across the Ural mountains, across Siberia, to the Golden Gate. Their fathers and mothers may have survived the wreck; there may be family reunions in the future, but these are secrets of the future

It is a desolating picture, this of the Russian children shifting before the cruel flames of war for two years, exposed to the dangers and hardships of rigorous climate and impoverished, wrecked territories. But with it there is a consoling thought, something that testifies to the illimitable reaches of charity, mercy and the consideration of men and women for the unfortunate. Wherever these refugee children have been there have been agents of the Red Cross to watch over them and provide for them where provision was possible

Now, on their long journey back home, the Red Cross is their guardian. Upon their arrival in San Francisco the world's mothering sister met them to extend comforts and provoke the joyful emotions that are peculiar to childhood. And the Red Cross will be with them when they finally reach Russia and are thrown upon the tender mercies of their home land.

Rumania has served notice to the Bolshevik power in Russia that unless evacuation of Rumanian territory is effected within three days she will mobilize her military forces to compel evacuation. Thus another nation seems about to be drawn into the West Russian conflict, which is one more score for the dalliance and indecision of the Allied governments in the winter of 1918-19, when firm decision would have prevented the troubles now in full flower.

Calling in the State Attorney General to take charge of the prosecution of the graft indictments in San Fraancisco has turned out to be a fiasco. The sole contribution of the Attorney General has been to clear the indicted persons of the charges filed against them. Whether or not the accused police judges and the bail bond brokers were guilty, they found the Attorney General to be their most amiable and influential friend

NO FOOD SCARCITY.

Kansas farmers are going to have a crop of 147,000,000 bushels of wheat—to put in their grain bins. Just how soon we may expect to see the effect of this immense crop on our tables we may possibly infer from the fact that a considerable part of the wheat crop of 1919 still remains in the Kansas farmers' hands, because of the lack of means of transportation. Wheat in Kansas granaries and elevators does not do the Eastern consumers much good, though it ought to affect the price of food products through the assurance that there is no such thing as scarcity. Meat prices rest more on the supply of corn than they do on that of wheat, and there is every indication that the corn yield in the great corn belt will also be immense. Yet even there we get no assurance of a fall in meat prices—or at any rate, in beef prices—for the supply of beef cattle continues to diminish. Abundance of corn should indeed affect the price of pork, while the stagnation in the wool market should increase the supply and lower the price of mutton.

The alarmist reports of the early summer regarding a general food scarcity are at least proved baseless, as the Transcript said at the time that they would be. Food is plentiful and will continue so. Beef and all cow products, including milk, are likely to continue high. To a great extent the scarcity of poultry and eggs should be relieved by the abundance of grain, but in this field the psychology of the farmer plays as large a part as the supply of hen-food, and that seems at present to be quite against poultry raising on the farm. — Boston Transcript.

NOTES and COMMENT

There are signs that the ready acceptance by the Republican candidate of the League of Nations pact as the main campaign issue has been somewhat disconcerting. It is not something that can be pointed to with undoubted pride, and if viewed with alarm, the viewpoint is likely to be on the wrong side for the proponents to rally around.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

The matter of city and county consolidation, the formation of a city and county of Oakland, the division of the county, or whatever form the impending move may take, is rapidly becoming one of the most important matters before the people of the county. Up to the present time there seems to be little definite information to be had, and there will be little on which to form an opinion until August 5. On that date a meeting is to be held in Oakland at which representatives of every city, town and district in the county will be present to talk over the matter and get the ideas of the various units of the county.—Livermore Herald

Lake Tahoe does not occupy the crater of an old volcano, government geologists assert. The region above the lake, they say, shows evidence of volcanic activity, but the lake itself lies in a structural depression. Prehistoric Lake Tahoe was larger than the present lake. HELPING THE POLES

RAILROAD FINANCES

Lack of Definite Government Policy Prevents Investment by the Public—Net Operating Income Decreased 40 Per Cent in Three Years—Solution of Railroad Problem Most Important Question Before the Country.

By DR. FRANK M. SURFACE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 — The people of this country are coming to realize that the railroads are the arteries of commerce and unless these are kept in proper condition every phase of business must suffer. The real difficulties in the railroad situation at present are obscured largely by the recent government control and the discussion arising from it.

Perhaps the most serious drawback to the railroad situation is the lack of a strong, clear-cut policy by the government. Both the railroads and the investing public are considerably in doubt as to just what action the government will take next. This is true especially because of the presidential election this year

Fundamentally, the 260,000 miles of railroads in the United States are in a sound position. The country has to have their services. Without them it could not live for a week. The business of the country is ready and willing to pay enough revenue to put them on a paying basis. If left entirely to their own devices the railroads would replace their depleted equipment and put themselves on a paying basis in short order. But in doing so they probably would cause price indices to take a sharp turn upward.

The investing public lacks confidence in the present railroad situation. This is shown by the fact that during the past year railroad stocks have declined steadily while industrials of the same class have increased in value. In general, people are unwilling to invest their money in railroad property or bonds under existing conditions

With the present scale of prices, the railroads, like every other business, must increase their capital. That such capital is available is evident from the fact that during the first six months of this year new securities were sold to the enormous value of $2,117,066,470, compared to $1,124,475,325 in the same period last year. To a large extent this money went into industrials, chiefly oil and motors. With confidence in the railroad situation restored large amounts of this money could be drawn there and would be the solution of the chief trouble.

Before this confidence can be restored the public must have some evidence that the railroads can earn their interest and pay their dividends

There has been a progressive decrease in the net operating income during recent years. In 1916 the ratio of operating expenses to operating revenue was 65.7. In 1918 this had increased to 8.15 and for the first four months of 1920 the ratio for Class 1 railroads was 92.1. In 1916 the net operating revenue after the payment of taxes was $1,063,066,000. For the first ten months of 1919 the net operating revenue as reported to the Interstate Commerce Commission was at the rate of $822,200,000 per year, a decrease of $440,000,000 per annum in three years' time.

The report of Class 1 railroads to the Interstate Commerce Commission for April, 1920, shows that operating expenses exceeded operating revenue by over $1,400,000 and that after taxes were deducted there was a deficit for the month of $24,016,000.

With an increased wage allowance amounting to $600,000,000 per year it is clear that some steps must be taken to increase the railroad [illegible]

Until the public knows just what increase will be granted and until it is ascertained whether it will be sufficient to allow for the upkeep of the property and to pay interest and dividends there will be no very large investments in railroad securities.

There is no single question before the country of greater importance than the solution of the railroad situation. It is realized that every addition of freight and passenger rates will add to the already overburdened cost of living. Nevertheless the figures given above show that the net income of the roads is below the margin of safety. This must be restored. The determination of the proper increase in revenue is a delicate matter which will have the most profound effect upon the future business prosperity of the country

Mrs. Benja Nelson Olsen, mother of Henry M. and N. O. Olsen, the grocers, was frightfully burned last night at her home by the explosion of a coal oil lamp, from the effects of which she died this morning at Fabiola hospital. The tragedy occurred in the Olsen home at Lafayette, in Contra Costa county

Mayor Snow received word this morning by telegraph of the death of his father, which occurred last night at Martha's Vineyard, Mass. He was 90 years old and died in the town in which he was born

The Socialist Labor party has appealed to Mayor Snow for permission to hold street meetings. The headquarters of the organization is too small for public gatherings. The meetings will be held on Tenth street.

PEKING

"Until recently Peking, capital of China, with its 700,000 people, was one of the least known of the great cities of the world," says the second of a series of National Geographic Society bulletins dealing with the places on the itinerary of the Congressional inspection trip to the Orient. "It took the Boxer rebellion and the siege of the legations in 1900 to open the long-closed doors.

"Peking is a 'city within a city.' The Chinese city, built in 1543, is the commercial center. The Tartar city dates from 1267 and includes the famous 'Forbidden City,' of which the Dragon Throne of the Son of Heaven, Emperor of the Middle Kingdom, is the center. The throne is of rare wood exquisitely carved. Just back of it is a screen of golden lacquer so dainty in design and execution that it gives the appearance of golden lace. Around this throne room are arranged the palaces, shut in by purple walls

"The Chien-men street bisects the Chinese city from the South Gate, where the railway enters to the principal gate in the wall separating the Chinese from the Tartar city. Along this main thoroughfare there passes a continuous throng. There, too, may be seen the springless passenger cart, with its blue arched roof and yellow wheels, corrugated metal tires, and its awning sheltering driver and mule, or the Mongolian camel the ship of the Asian desert, and, interesting above all, the scarlet bridal chair with its piece of bacon and parcel of sugar hung on the back as an offering to the demons who might molest the bride while on her journey. Officials hurry back and forth in the gorgeous chairs, their coolies making great din as they seek right of way. Noisy vendors of amulets, and medicines of ground tiger bones to strengthen faint hearts, and extracts of rat meat to make the hair grow, add to the din.

"On the east side of this roadway is an enclosure of about one square mile, which contains the Altar of Heaven, surrounded by shrines and temples, the most important of which is the circular, three-roofed marble Temple of Heaven with pillars of Oregon pine and roof of deep blue porcelain tiles.

"Near the ornate Temple of Heaven is the Temple of Confucius, 'the most holy ancestral teacher.'

"The Washington Monument of Peking is the famous thirteen-storied Buddhist pagoda from the summit of which a fine view of the city may be had.

"Peking claims the oldest daily newspaper in the world, the Peking Gazette, compared with whose age the London Times, with its hundred years, is in its infancy. For six dollars a year, a Pekingese can read all that his government desired him to know as to its actions, or he can rent his Gazette for the day and return it. In former years newspapers were found on the walls in the form of posters. They were printed from a large block of wood upon which the intricate characters had been cut by hand.

"As early as the seventh century A. D. visiting cards were in common use in China, and, to the American girl who this month is sending to her friends two small cards tied with a bit of white ribbon, announcing her engagement, it will be interesting to know that when a Chinaman desires to marry, his parents inform a professional 'match maker,' who selects a bride for the young man. He then calls upon the parents of the young woman and presents his card, upon which has been inscribed his ancestral name and the eight symbols which denote the date of his birth. If he is accepted, her card is sent in return and if the oracles forecast 'good for the union, details of the engagement are written on two large cards and these are tied together with red silken cords."

EMMA FREITAS WEEPS AS CASE GOES TO JURY

Mrs. Emma Freitas, who shot and killed her husband, Tony Freitas, on the night of April 10 in East Oakland, for the first time since the opening of her trial a week ago, completely broke down today. With face wan, and her calm completely shattered she bowed her head into her hands and wept as Deputy District Attorney Frank M. Shay closed the arguments for the prosecution. Shay asserted that the plea of temporary insanity upon which the defense is basing its plea for acquittal, while admitting the shooting, is making a laughing stock of our laws. The fate of the young woman now rests with the jury.

SHAY ASKS CONVICTION.

"Are you going to uphold the law or are you going to say that every time a woman is abused she has the right to shoot her husband in cold blood?" he demanded of the jury. Shay completed his address, which was begun late yesterday, at the opening of court. The courtroom was thronged with those who have attended throughout the trial. A restlessness was apparent throughout the assembly. The small children of the defendant, one of them suffering with whooping cough, were present with their mother during recess.

As Attorney Nate Coghlan, counsel for Mrs. Freitas, presented the defense in his arguments yesterday, the jury and spectators were in tears. He declared that Mrs. Freitas had suffered through her married life more abuses than ever come to the notice of the court before and that in defense of the future of her children the wife, on an insane impulse, had fired the fatal shot.

VERDICT LOOKED FOR TODAY.

Judge James G. Quinn before the noon recess read the formal charge to the jury. It is believed that a decision may be reached some time late this afternoon. The personnel of the jury which will determine whether Mrs. Freitas is guilty of murder or whether she fired the shot which killed her husband while temporarily insane is:

Julian Holman, Catherine A. Deaner, Maud Harding, Carl D. Mattson, Ellen Hendy, Walter D. Littleton, John E. Jenner, Clara S. Eaton, Mrs. Jennie Teulon, G. J. W. Stark, August Anderson and Adelbert C. Earl.

Union Chief Denies Sabotage Order

The local branch of the One Big Union in a statement issued today [illegible] tribution of thousands of cards urging shipyard workers to strike and to wreck the machinery of the yards as they leave at the plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation in Alameda, as was reported to the police Saturday.

The statement, signed M. L. Oberlies, acting secretary of the O. B. U., says in part:

"The cards are absolutely condemned by the executive board and all members of the One Big Union as forgeries. The One Big Union is not in any position to call a strike and no such action is contemplated. The last sentence advocates sabotaging the machines and tools of the employers, a penitentiary offense that never was and never will be advocated by the One Big Union."

Creed Is Guest of Honor at Banquet

W. E. Creed, Piedmont attorney, was honor guest at a banquet given last night at the Palace hotel by John A. Britton, at which time Creed was formally congratulated by his associates on becoming president of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Speeches by Britton and Creed, lantern slides showing the development of the company, and other entertainment features were staged. Besides the department heads, district managers and various company officials, the guests included: Henry E. Bothin, John A. McCandless, P. M. Downing, Garret McEnerney, Charles L. Barrett, J. C. Love, John D. McKee, C. O. G. Miller, W. H. Crocker and John Drum.

Able Men in Harding Cabinet Foreseen by Will H. Crocker

National Committeeman is Speaker at Local G. O. P. Luncheon.

WILLIAM H. CROCKER, national committeeman, who told Republican plans at luncheons yesterday.

Declaring that Senator Harding, if elected, will be known for the able character of the men with whom he will surround himself in cabinet counsels, and that indicative of the character of these men is a generally accepted report that one of the first to be chosen will be George Reynolds, Chicago banker, William H. Crocker, San Francisco business man and Republican National Committeeman for California, made an enthusiastic talk in Oakland at a luncheon yesterday at the Hotel Oakland.

The talk was practically the opening gun of the national Republican campaign in the Eastbay district. Confronting Committeeman Crocker were more than 150 Republican leaders of Alameda county, called together under the auspices of the Republican ways and means committee of the county to meet and hear the San Franciscan.

BIG MEN FOR CABINET.

"This is," he said, "the beginning of a campaign to bring the country back to sanity through the election of the Republican candidates at the fall elections."

Senator Harding, the national committeeman, out of a fullness of feeling based on a recent meeting with the nominee, he praised without stint.

"Harding is a wonderful candidate," Crocker said, "whose predominant feature is good business common sense. He is a man who realizes that he does not know it all, but yet knows in his heart the danger which the country is in at the present time.

"Another most important feature is that we have a man who will take into his cabinet and councils not mediocre figures like Daniels, Baker and Burleson, but the biggest personalities in the country; men like Root and Hay, whom McKinley called to his cabinet. It is already well known that he will, in all probability, choose George Reynolds, the great Chicago banker, as his secretary of the treasury, provided that we elect him.

"With Harding at the helm of the nation we will have a real business organization, and that is what the country wants most and needs."

The Alameda county listeners punctuated the talk with applause as Mr. Crocker went on to discuss the inclinations of the Ohioan and referred to the report that Reynolds already was reported a very probable choice for a cabinet position.

MANAGEMENT OF CAMPAIGN.

As a conclusion the committeeman discussed the plan of Republican campaign organization in the West, pointing out the manner in which Arizona, Nevada, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California had been set off in a regional area to be answered for, directly, by supervisors who now have headquarters in the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, and under whom the State organizations will work.

Crocker appeared deeply impressed with the Oakland luncheon gathering and the manner of his reception, saying that he had crossed the bay expecting to meet only a dozen or so Republicans, instead of 150.

Republican ways and means workers of San Francisco will hold a similar get-together session Wednesday afternoon, Crocker said.

Ed. H. Brown, representing the national committee, was introduced after Crocker was seated and, spoke in lively fashion of party organization aims and of the manner in which it was planned that the campaign should go forward.

He declared that talk that this was a "Republican year" and that the outcome in November was a foregone conclusion was perilous, and asserted that apathy, overconfidence and procrastination could readily defeat the ticket headed by Senator Harding.

DEMOCRATIC PREPAREDNESS.

As an instance of Democratic campaign preparedness, "contrasted with inefficiency in government," he declared that the treasury department at Washington had one bit of equipment which cost $200,000 and was used solely for sending out Democratic propaganda letters. He declared that all Liberty loan and other patriotic listings taken during the war had been turned over for the benefit of polling bodies of the Democrats. The result, he told the meeting, was a heavy handicap which the Republicans must labor to overcome.

Joseph R. Knowland, chairman of the Alameda county ways and means committee, in introducing Crocker, told of the unselfish work of the San Franciscan since his appointment to a position on the national committee four years ago. He stated that Crocker was not an office seeker, but did his work for the love of the Republican party and his desire to see California at the forefront of national affairs.

Of punch and wine I spilled one night
When I was out with friends so bright
And you stayed home to mind the tots.

SALT LAKE OPENS HERE MINUS TWO OF LEAGUES BEST MEN

FRANKIE BURNS AND WILLIE ROBINSON WILL TANGLE IN THE MAIN EVENT TOMORROW NIGHT

JOHNSON SAYS THAT KRUG WILL NOT BE ASKED TO COMEBACK

Francois Hosp Is Signed to a Bee Contract; Four Bees Among Five Leading Hitters

By EDDIE MURPHY

Ernie Johnson and his Salt Lake Bees arrived in our midst last night and to listen to the little leader of the Mormon City club speak, one would hardly suspect that he had recently lost Marty Krug, one of his star players, and is also expecting to lose Harl Maggert, his star outfielder. While the averages show Marty Krug to be one of the most valuable infielders in the league, Johnson will not worry much over his loss, but will worry should Maggert refuse to report for this week's series with the Oaks. Johnson has been told by friends that Krug has admitted he acted too hastily. If Krug wants to return to the Bees he will have to send the news to Johnson, as the latter has made up his mind not to go after him.

Heinie Sands has been looking after the position left vacant by Krug, but he didn't deliver as good as Johnson wished. After looking through the record books and everywhere else in search of a new man to take Krug's place, Johnson decided to bring Francois Hosp back into the league. Hosp will play the second bag in the series against the Oaks. A few days ago some fans remarked that it was about time the veteran infielder was being called into Coast league action again. Hosp has seen his best days as a player, but he is yet able to step in and prove a handy man in an emergency.

If Johnson can talk Maggert out of quitting the game he will do so. "There has never been a better leadoff man in the Coast league than Harl Maggert proved with my club this season. The old boy was a cinch to get on base almost every first trip to the plate. It sure was nice to have him on the bags and then fellows like Rumler and Sheeley drive him home. He will not quit if I can keep him from doing so." That is what Manager Johnson had to say last night.

Johnson says that Maggert has been on the warpath since the Bees met the Coyotes in a series at Sacramento more than a month ago. He was sore because he was fined $25 for having a run-in with Umpire Eason in that series. Then when the suspension and second fine came last week, he threw up his hands and said Quits. Maggert is not worrying about the fine, as the club paid that. He didn't like the idea of being suspended.

Maggert Best In Number Of Hits And Runs Made

Maggert and Krug are two of the most valuable men that Johnson had. Krug quit with a hitting mark of .315. He was second best in run scoring with ninety to his credit, while Harl Maggert was the best with ninety-five. He and Johnson were the best combination in the league for covering the second sack. Maggert is tied with Eldred for hitting the most doubles, having forty after his name. He was also among the leaders in hitting triples, making ten. Maggert has 174 hits to date. That is more than any other player in the league has made. You couldn't hardly blame him for balking at being suspended, as he is having the best year of his career.

The veteran outfielder remains as the second best batter in the league with Earl Sheely still being at the top. Earl lost only one point against the Vernon pitchers last week and is at the .369 mark. Manager Ernie Johnson must have been doing some worrying, even though he refuses to admit it. He is still the third best batter, but lost ten points off his last average. His outfielder, Bill Rumler, almost went ahead of him by gaining a few points.

If Wally Hood, the new Bee outfielder, can keep up the good work, the Bees will soon have five men as the leaders in hitting. He made another gain and almost passed Justin Fitzgerald who is tied with Bill Rumler for fourth place.

Hack Miller is easily the best batter for the Oaks, as he gained a couple of points while Claude Cooper lost seven. Louie Guisto is also doing wonderful fielding against the Coyotes, added a half dozen points to his hitting. He figures to be in the .300 society soon. Jack Knight, Denny Wilie and "Red" Brubaker also picked up in the hitting off the Coyote hurlers. The averages, including games of Sunday, are as follows:

FRANKIE KIDS WILLIE ABOUT TRADING WITH AD WOLGAST'S STORE

Flock of Middleweights Will Be On Hand to Challenge Otto Berg-Reeves Winner

By BOB SHAND

Willie Robinson is peeved at his old pal, Frankie Burns, and the milkman promises to take it out of the local boy's hide Wednesday night when they clash at the auditorium. When Burns read about Ad Wolgast investing in a goat's gland he chuckled right merrily. "Why the laughter?" inquired George Proctor. "Nothing," said Frankie, "only I was just reading in the paper where Ad Wolgast had bought himself a goat's gland and was going to try and come back, and I was just wondering if Willie Robinson and Ad traded at the same store.

"What you mean, think Robinson has goat glands?" chirped Proctor.

"How do I know?" replied Frankie; "only it's all the style now and you can never tell what a guy like Robinson will do."

Just then Harold Algernon Fitzgibbon Broom entered the rubbing room.

"What you guys mean about goat's bands?" asked the seeker after information. "I hear about them things and you want to be careful Frankie if Robinson ate any of them. They're dangerous because they make a guy butt. You wouldn't get me in no ring where the fighters were wearing them there goat bands."

Of course Willie has not been operated on for anything like that. He is just an old timer who has taken good care of himself and who is fast enough up stairs to outthink many of the present crop of four-rounders. Willie gave Jimmy Duffy a right merry time and he is very liable to give Mr. Burns just as warm a session.

George Shade and another half dozen middleweights will be at the ringside tomorrow night to challenge the winner of the Otto Berg-Jack Reeves fight. The fans like the big fellows and there are plenty of them running around loose. Berg finished his training at Wixteveran looks to be in good shape. son's gymnasium yesterday and the Otto knows he is going against a good man in Reeves but he is prepared and will give Jack all the fight the latter is looking for.

Leo Matlock vs. Frankie Denny; Frankie Rodgers vs. Joe Ketchel; Teddy O'Hara vs. Larry Jones, and Billy Wallace vs. Jimmy Adams are some of the other battles on the card.

Battling Ortega has started training for his bout with Marty Farrell which will be staged under the auspices of the American Legion in San Francisco late this month. Farrell has agreed to make the middleweight limit. If he doesn't Manager Simpson says there will be no fight.

Bill Larue has returned from the Yosemite Valley and denies that he has placed himself under the management of Frank Lawlor. "Lawlor kept asking me if I wanted to fight," said Larue this morning, "and I told him if the medal was right I was ready to sign." Bill lost a lot of weight while on his vacation and looks like an athlete again.

Teddy O'Hara is still camping on Bud Ridley's trail but Bud is looking for something softer. Ridley and Baird will do it all over again Friday night at Dreamland Rink, San Francisco.

Joe Leopold is also on the warpath. Joe has been out of the ring for almost three weeks now and he thinks he is entitled to some work with the gloves. The [illegible] will put in with Joe who always gives them a run for their money.

Military Drill Part Of Athlete's Training

ON BOARD U.S.S. PRINCESS MATOIKA, Aug. 3—(By wireless).—Colds, attended, in some instances, by slight fever, have developed among the American athletes bound for the Olympic games since the Princess Matoika has gotten into the North Atlantic and encountered raw, chilly winds.

None of the men are in serious condition and all are expected to be fit by the time the ship arrives in Antwerp.

Military drill to initiate the athletes into the evolutions of the international parade at Antwerp is now a part of the daily routine.

Ruth Hammers Out Thirty-eighth Homer

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—"Babe" Ruth cracked out his 36th home run before a crowd estimated at over 30,000 and New York shut out Chicago yesterday 7 to 0. It was the third homer Ruth had hit off Williams this season.

The visitors were in a batting mood and Williams' wildness helped the Yankees. Four of their scores came by home runs, as the two circuit drives were made with a man on base.

Ruth in addition to his home run, walked twice and hit an infield fly so high he reached second base before the ball was caught by Risberg. On his other time up he knocked a double.

LYNCH BEATS LEDOUX.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 3.—Joe Lynch of New York outpointed Charlie Ledoux, French bantamweight champion, in virtually every round of their 12-round bout last night. In the final round Lynch caught Ledoux off balance and scored a knockdown, but the Frenchman was on his feet in a second.

Boxing Notes

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE,
Oakland, Calif.

Dear Sir—My sterling "wild man tamer," George Shade, who has been out of the game for several months because of bad hands, bad nose and [illegible] all right now, physically, mentally and otherwise, and would like nothing better than to make his return to the roped arena at Oakland, with the winner of the Berg-Reeves fight. If he cannot get either of those boys, he is open to box any welterweight or middleweight on the coast.

Two other boys who have not boxed before an Oakland audience for months are "Battling" Larsen and Charley Moy. The latter is especially desirous of meeting Danny Edwards.

Yours truly,
FRANK TABOR.

MORE PHOSPHATE OR LOSE YOUR YOUTHFUL LOOKS

Lack of Phosphate in Blood and Nerve Cells Age Many People Before Their Time—Is Current Report.

The people who stand up and laugh at hot, sultry weather are the ones who have plenty of phosphorus in their systems.

If you are weak, become played out early on a hot day; if you become irritated easily, lose your patience and cannot concentrate your mind on difficult problems, then you need Bitro-Phosphate, a pure organic phosphate that feeds your starving nerves just the food they need.

It is a simple matter that all modern physicians understand.

If you, man or woman, desire a sturdy virile body with an abundance of nerve force and endurance—if you want a keen, active mind that won't tire under severe strain, then you must have plenty of phosphorus in blood, nerve and bone cells and a pure organic phosphate known at druggists as BITRO-PHOSPHATE is just what you need.

Get Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed at druggists in the original package; it should revive your depressed spirits and renew your ambition. It should make you look younger and feel younger, physicians assert.—Advertisement.

MOTHERHOOD WOMAN'S RIGHT

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps to Make Women Normal.

Washington, Ind.—"I was in such a condition that I never expected to have children, and my aunt advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It improved my health and restored a normal condition of my system so that I now have a fine baby. Until she was about a year old I was very nervous, and all the time thinking something terrible was going to happen. If I heard any one coming, my heart would beat fast and I wanted to run. So I took the Vegetable Compound again and it helped me wonderfully. You may publish my letter, as the medicine is surely great."—Mrs. IVA BANTA, R. R. No. 4, Box 24, Washington, Ind.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its ability to correct sterility in many cases. This fact is well established as evidenced by the above letter and hundreds of others we have published.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women

G. and E. employee, is dead as a result of automobile injuries suffered near Round Mountain, when, the brakes failing to hold on a down grade, the chauffeur steered the car into a bank. The automobile capsized, pinning Williams beneath it. His left arm and right leg were broken in two places.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—Robert L. Apker of Sacramento was drowned within sight of his wife and three small children in the American river, near Folsom. It is believed he was stricken with cramps while wading in the river. His body was recovered and was taken in charge by the coroner of Placer county. Apker was a delivery man for a grocery company.

RAIL SURVEY STARTED

GREENSVILLE, Aug. 3.—Work on the survey of the proposed extension of the Indian Valley railroad, a Western Pacific property, into the Susanville-Westwood lumber district, has begun. A crew of twelve men is employed and a camp has been established in Moonlight canyon.

Two routes are sand to be under consideration, and preliminary surveys will be made of both. One is through Moonlight canyon and the other follows the course of Lights creek.

BRIBERY TRIAL SET

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—Superior Judge Malcolm C. Glenn has overruled the demurrer to the indictment charging patrolman Elliott B. Harris with asking a bribe of George Argant, a soft drink merchant.

Judge Glenn held that arrests for violation of the Volstead Act are within the official duty of members of the police department, in denying the demurrer which maintained that Harris could not be charged with a crime of which he could not be guilty. The demurrer set forth that it was not the duty of a police officer to enforce the Volstead Act and therefore he could not receive bribes for not enforcing the law.

Harris pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for August 7.

MINISTERS' HOME PLANNED

CHICO, Aug. 3.—The proposal to make the Bidwell mansion, the former home of General John Bidwell, founder of Chico, a retreat for aged ministers of the Presbyterian church, was favorably received at the California Synod at Santa Barbara, according to Dr. R. S. Eastman, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, who has just returned from the gathering.

As the initial step toward using the mansion for this purpose, the Santa Barbara synod meeting recommended that the property revert from the educational board to the general assembly.

OROVILLE SHIPS TOKAYS

OROVILLE, Aug. 3.—Oroville has achieved what is claimed to be the first shipment of the ripe tokay grapes out of California to the eastern markets. James H. Legget grew the grapes upon his Rockpile ground, the tract having been dredged for gold before the grapes were planted. Leggett grew grapes upon the ground before he permitted the land to be dredged.

CANNED GOODS SCARCE

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 3.—That canned fruits and vegetables will be scarce and costly this winter is the statement of Arthur Hill, superintendent of the California Packing Corporation here. While the output this year will be slightly more than last year there will be a decided scarcity due to the fact that many of the smaller canneries have been forced out of business by the high cost of sugar and labor.

Locomotive Hits Auto; One Dead, Two Hurt

MODESTO, Aug. 3. — Mrs. A. W. Russell, residing near here, is dead, her husband is in a hospital in this city and will not recover, according to physicians, and their ten-year-old son is seriously injured, as the result of an automobile in which they were riding being struck by a Southern Pacific engine at a crossing four miles north of here last night. The engine which struck the automobile was running without any cars attached.

The automobile was picked up on the cow-catcher and remained there until the engine was brought to a stop about 100 yards from the crossing. Mrs. Russell and her little son were thrown from the automobile, but Russell was still in the machine when the engine stopped.

Long Island Will Get Largest Radio Plant

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—At a cost of $10,000,000, the Radio Corporation of America will build the world's largest radio plant, capable of circling the globe, on a 6400-acre tract near Rocky Point, Long Island.

The station, when completed, will be five times as powerful and efficient as the world's greatest plants today, located at Nauen, Germany, and Bordeaux, France.

According to first announcements of the plan made public, contracts for all construction materials are being let and the building stage has practically been reached.

Room-to-Manhole Fall Kills Woman

SALT LAKE CITY, U., Aug. 3. — A woman's screams, coming from an apparently empty alley near a small hotel here, caused a search of nearby premises which ended when Mrs. Rose Foreman was found in a manhole about ten feet below the paving in the alley. She had fallen or jumped from her room on an upper floor of the hotel, about 75 feet. Mrs. Foreman died at a hospital a short time after without having been able to give an account of the affair. She was divorced from her husband, O. F. Foreman of Reno, several months ago.

Miss Cox was a delegate to the Democratic convention in San Francisco and she and the other women told Burbank they were so delighted with

STUDENTS GIVEN FREE VACATION

Twelve of the federal vocational students left yesterday for a two weeks' vacation secured for them through the plan originated at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. whereby various resorts give the men free accommodations and the Oakland "Y" pays the transportation. Sebastian Tarrantino, R. C. Smith, D. Conklin, R. A. Crook, and J. W. Tyson went to Pine Lodge in Santa Cruz county. H. B. Clark, D. D. Stone and John Epling went to Southside Farm at Guerneville. Frank Smith and Charles Ramirez went to Vichy Springs. J. B. Zweigart and Paul Taylor went to Caliente Villa. Forest Young and Roger Prior went to Forde's Rest at Olympia.

Up to date ninety-four federal vocational students have either had a two weeks' vacation, or are now enjoying it. Letters received from the boys speak in the highest terms of the fine way in which they are being received and treated. Letters received from the managers of the resorts to which the federal vocational students have gone contain words of praise for the men.

W. W. Price, manager of Fallen Leaf lodge, Lake Tahoe, was so pleased with the five men that he entertained at his place for two weeks in June that he has written asking that five more be sent there for two weeks later in the season.

The federal vocational students are all men who have been granted disability because of wounds or sickness received in the service of the army or navy, and who are now being given vocational training at the expense of the government.

LIBERTY OPENS WITH MOROSCO 'LINGER, LETTY'

After being closed five weeks for remodeling and redecorating Ye Liberty theater reopened last night, the attraction being "Linger Longer Letty," a new Oliver Morosco show, featuring Charlotte Greenwood. The play is one of the most pretentious offerings that Morosco has ever sent on the road and Miss Greenwood's acting makes it appear as though the vehicle was especially built for her.

The music of "Linger Longer Letty" is tuneful under the baton of Harry James. The comedy is very acceptable and on a whole the play is excellent. "Linger Longer Letty" will remain until the end of the week, with a matinee tomorrow and on Saturday.

STATE MARKET PETITION FAILS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—Notification of the failure of circulators of petitions to obtain enough signatures to place the Brown state market act before the people by the initiative has been telegraphed James Cremin, statistician in the Secretary of State's office, by Henry E. Carter of Los Angeles. Approximately 75,000 signatures were necessary to place the measure on the ballot.

Carter is president of the Consumers' League, which launched the fight in Southern California to place the measure which was defeated in the last session of the Legislature on the November ballot.

The stat market act, as introduced by Senator William E. Brown, provided for the establishment of a system of self-supporting markets under State supervision. Brown fought for his bill on the ground that it would eliminate unnecessary costs incurred in transferring products from producer to consumer. He stated that it was a move which, if approved, would materially decrease the cost of living by facilitating sale of products at the minimum price.

WHO PAYS FOR PNEUMATIC TRUCK TIRE EXPERIMENTS

WHEN an automobile owner's tire goes back on him he more or less cheerfully charges it off as a personal loss and tries to do better next time.

It is different with the motor truck owner.

Every tire must do exactly what is expected of it or be charged against his business.

* * *

The United States Rubber Company spent two years in developing the idea of putting a heavy truck on air before it brought out the first pneumatic truck tires. Even then it was not satisfied.

Even at that time it saw that you could not take an ordinary passenger car tire, enlarge it and make it do what truck owners expect of their tires.

It went back again to first principles—to the foundation—to the bead of the tire.

The car owner who seeks United States standards in tubes is well paid in more mileage for his tires. U. S. Red Tubes. U. S. Grey Tubes.

It created a new type of bead construction, positively anchoring the cords. It put in the right number of breaker strips, stronger side walls, a heavier tread.

The result was a pneumatic truck tire—not an enlarged passenger car tire. Created to fill a need—not padded and bolstered up to fill a market already created.

* * *

There are still some sizes of U. S. Nobby Cord Tires you cannot buy. The market is there, waiting for them.

But they will not be released until this company is satisfied that they will do what truck owners expect of them.

The United States Rubber Company has never asked truck owners to pay for its tire experiments.

OIL PRICE RAISE CERTAIN UNLESS YIELD INCREASES

Revised figures of crude oil production and consumption throw a clear light on the price situation. According to a statement covering several months of the current year, a continued deficit in available market oil seems inevitable for an indefinite period unless production be speeded up very much in advance of present progress. Roundly, the United States is producing only 402,000,000 [illegible] annually, an obvious deficit of 34,000,000 barrels.

California's contribution to the world supply is 100,000,000 barrels a year, with Mexico running at 182,000,000, and Oklahoma at 110,000,000. It leaves the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Arkansas, Louisiana, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah a deficit of 60,000,000 barrels to make up, with the aid of small contributions from other locations. In the aggregate the United States and Mexico produce 80 per cent of the world's crude oil demand.

ADVANCES LOWERING

The possibility of oil production for the general market is confined to the states of Oklahoma and California and Mexico. In the latter country revolution has thus far, for several years, prevented safe enterprise there of any kind, and recovery from that situation, even under favorable circumstances—not yet reliably vouchsafed—must be a somewhat slow process. Oklahoma and Kansas are making some showing in the right direction, but California is not. California's crude oil supply is not now sufficient to meet the domestic demand.

That advances in crude, and all products made therefrom, should follow a trade situation like this seems inevitable. That the advances should [illegible] California, and this latter seems to be more certain when advances in other sections of the country, already made, are kept in mind.

PRODUCTION FALLS BEHIND

Pennsylvania has already advanced, per barrel, from $4 to $6; Mid-Continent district, $2 to $3.50; Gulf, $1.10 to $2. In California the advance has been only 40 cents per barrel for 14 to 18 gravity oil, not including the present announced advance of 12 cents.

At the close of 1919 the nation's oil demand was satisfied by a margin of 2,160,000 barrels, on a total supply of 377,719,000 barrels. On that showing advances began to accelerate. At present the nation's demand is not being made from production and the national surplus is being depleted, a situation which points to higher prices.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Sharp new advances in the price of wheat took place today owing to complications that might bring about enlarged demand for food supplies from the United States. "Dear Tessie: I've learned by this time that waiters have only two speeds—slow and stop. Joke. So I'll take this chance to answer your letter. About your cousin Grace's wedding present, I would suggest to give her something foolish to pay her back for the blue candy jar she gave us, and not to pay more than $5 for it at the outside. A small set of wine glasses ought to come cheap now and I can't think of anything more useless. I never did think much of your cousin Grace anyway. She's about the dumbest of all your relatives, and that's faint praise, believe me——"

Sounds natural, doesn't it? Whether you are a traveling salesman for Daisy Canned Soups, or a book-keeper, or a bank president which will appear daily hereafter in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE, will make you laugh at everything from the election of the next President to the H. C. of L.

"THE LETTERS OF TESSIE AND JOE"

WATCH FOR THEM!

CHURCHES

"The high cost of living, labor problems and Babe Ruth's batting record are of more interest to the great American public than learned discussions of theological, historical and political facts and conditions," declared the Rev. Francis J. Van Horn, pastor of the First Congregational church, Oakland, after his completion of a 7000-mile swing around the United States. The topic of his sermon Sunday was "The Pulpit, the Press and the Common People."

Rev. Van Horn said prohibition is liked in the Middle West, that the saloon is gone forever; but that light wines and beers may come back.

BROOKLYN PRESBYTERIAN

"Look upward" was the watchword of Dr. H. L. Kerr, pastor of Brooklyn Presbyterian church, in his sermon, "The Uplift of the Uplook," given Sunday morning. He spoke on the "Everyday Vacation" in the evening.

Dr. Kerr said the effect made by the existence of millions of happy homes is submerged, to judge by surface indications, by the great noise made by divorce, domestic intrigue and the dishonest profiteer. "Evil advertises while honesty hides its light under a bushel," said Dr. Kerr.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL

"That fine spirit of service and sacrifice so prevalent during the great war has suffered a reaction," declared Rev. John Stephens of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Oakland in his sermon Sunday on "The World's Darkness and the World's Light." "We have trusted that the generous impulses might continue to dominate our dives, but the world citizen has become a Little American, and unselfishness in too large a measure has changed to sinful grasping and foolish extravagance.

ST. ELIZABETH'S

The "Great Pardon of Assissi," or the Franciscan feast of the Portiuncula, was celebrated at St. Elizabeth's church, Fruitvale. The feast ended at midnight.

UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN

BERKELEY, Aug. 3.—Rev. Cedric G. Price of the University Christian church, speaking before a congregation that packed the church auditorium, preached on the subject "Coming on the Clouds." Using for his text Rev. 1:7, "Behold He cometh with the Clouds," he made clear the fact that Christ is here.

He said: "He is reigning in the hearts of men. The world has long sought its Christ. The orthodox Jews have left a vacant chair at their tables for their Messiah. Mrs. White has her group waiting for the return of the Lord. The world has long lingered and waited. But because of its gross materialism in worshiping the almighty dollar and because of its lack of vision and Christless spirit, one wonders if the world hasn't passed Him by. Henry Van Dyke's 'other wise man' found his Lord after giving his last precious jewel to save an outcast woman from the slave market. He found his King. 'In as much as ye did it unto one of these ye did it unto Me.'"

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The Endeavorers of the University Christian Church, formerly known as the South Berkeley Endeavorers, piled up enough points in the recent Christian Endeavor efficiency contest of the Christian Churches of California (North) to take the banner in the second division from Pacific Grove which won it for two consecutive years. The merging of the South Berkeley and the First Christian Churches has made a society now known as the University C. E. so large that it will be regarded as a first division society. An election was held and the following were declared elected: President, Leland Emerson; vice president, Clem Skinner; corresponding secretary, Laura Ballor; recording secretary, Viola Whittner, and treasurer, Clyde Polson.

TIPPED THE BEAM AT JUST 84 POUNDS

"I only weighed eighty-four pounds when I began taking Tanlac, and had suffered ever since I was a girl, but now the medicine has built me up until I weigh a hundred and three pounds and am feeling just fine," was the enthusiastic statement made by Mrs A. C. Rose of 1021 S. Flower Street, a well known resident of Los Angeles for the past eighteen years.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the dyspheria and my stomach has been in a badly disordered condition ever since, that is until recently when I got Tanlac. I had no appetite at all and what little I did manage to eat seemed to lie in my stomach undigested, and bloated me all up with gas which kept me in distress nearly all the time. I often became so dizzy that everything seemed to be whirling around before my eyes, and I could hardly remain on my feet. I kept getting worse until about five months ago I had a complete nervous breakdown, and was in such misery I would walk the floor until eleven or twelve o'clock at night. It was only when I got Tanlac that my condition began to improve.

"Why, it's simply surprising the way Tanlac put an end to my troubles, and my weight kept increasing steadily until I have actually gained nineteen pounds. I just eat anything I want now and never have a sign of indigestion, gas, or any other stomach trouble. I'm entirely free from dizziness, and my nerves are in good condition again. Why, I'm simply feeling fine, and I'm just as thankful as I can be to Tanlac for my present good health."

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows. Mix a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating. But to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

Girl Is Released in Loftis Death Case

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Samuel T. A. Loftus, wealthy diamond dealer and Lothario, came to his death in his luxurious apartment from an accident, according to a verdict returned by a coroner's jury this afternoon

The same verdict recommended that Miss Ruth Woods, the young woman who was present at the last "party," be released.

Arguments in Irrigation Dispute to Require Week

Arguments on a demurrer to a cross-complaint filed by defendants in the Strathmore-Lindsay irrigation district suit involving 100,000 acres of San Joaquin irrigated farm lands were heard today by Superior Judge Dudley Kinsell. Attorneys began presenting their arguments to the court yesterday and will require all of this week to complete the presentation.

The suit was originally filed by the Tulare irrigation district against the Lindsay-Strathmore irrigation district in 1916. It was tried in Tulare county, and judgment awarded the plaintiffs. On appeal to the Supreme Court Judge W. L. Wallace of Tulare county, who tried the case, was disqualified because he owned some of the lands involved.

Close to 100,000 acres are involved The Tulare farmers aver that the entire area of their farms is threatened with irreparable damage because of the water taken from the Keweah river by the Lindsay-Strathmore farmers for irrigation purposes. The Tulare district's supply is being seriously threatened, it is charged, by the extensive development of irrigation canals and ditches put in in the Lindsay-Strathmore district.

The Tulare farmers set forth in their arguments that from time immemorial the natural course of the Kaweah river has been from the Sierra Nevada mountains down to the benefit of their lands

The Lindsay-Strathmore group sets forth that the waters from the Kaweah naturally flow in a southwesterly direction for the benefit of their lands. The underground flow of water which can be tapped by wells is proof of this contention, they maintain, while contending that their rights supercede all others.

In the suit proper Tulare farmers ask that the Court decree that the defendants have no right to divert any of the waters underlying the lands of the defendants or other water by means of wells, ditches conduits, pipe lines or otherwise. They ask a permanent restraining order.

WHY BUY TIN CANS WITH YOUR COFFEE?

Coffee Truths right from the shoulder by Long, the Coffee Man

A great many of our customers have come to us with the question, "How can you sell the quality of coffee for 40c per pound, which others sell from 50c to 60c per pound?"

There is a Very Good Reason why

In the first place in our way of doing the coffee business we do away with the profits of four middlemen.

We import direct from the plantation and sell straight to the consumer. We have no agents, no solicitors, no delivery, no premiums; thereby doing away with an expense of at least 10c per pound. We do not put our coffee in expensive cans which cost at least 10c each. Remember, somebody has to pay for those cans and you can depend upon it, it is the consumer who foots the bill. Why pay for a can with every pound of coffee you buy and throw it away? It is virtually paying 10c for something that is worth nothing to you. Besides when you buy coffee in a can you are liable to get coffee that has been on the grocer's shelf for six months or a year and you know stale coffee is not good coffee.

LONG, THE COFFEE MAN

With us you are sure of getting fresh coffee all the time, for we take off a roast of coffee every thirty minutes, so you get all the nice flavor and aroma of the coffee. We have the finest and most up-to-date retail coffee plant in the west. Our coffee is handled from start to finish by automatic machinery. We can deliver 15 pounds of coffee over the counter per minute.

It would be well worth your while to come in and inspect our plant and see it in operation. We are coffee experts, we know coffee from A to Z and we are here to serve you with this knowledge and give you a coffee value you cannot duplicate elsewhere.

Our sales aggregate about 50,000 pounds per month. We have about 15,000 regular customers and surprising as it may seem, we are now supplying nearly one-fourth of the population of Oakland with this delicious coffee. These are the reasons:

The right business methods, the right kind of coffee and superior service to our customers. If you are not already with us we suggest that you try our coffee. You will surely become a permanent and satisfied customer and save from $10 to $25 per year on your coffee bill.

COUNCIL MEATS
Better Meats That Cost Less
No Waste · No Ice Needed
Always Tender
Ready-Cooked To Perfection

Only pay for the meat you eat-not for the trimmings and waste

WHEN you pay sixty or seventy cents for a piece of meat, a goodly part of it is wasted because you can't eat all the meat you buy. There are the fat and bones and trimmings—all paid for at the price of meat—and only a little of the fat can be used, the rest is just a loss. Besides which, uncooked meat contains much water that is lost in cooking—but you've paid for the water at meat prices.

But there is a way to overcome that loss, which is 15% or 25% of what you spend on meat today.

And that is by buying ready-cooked, wholesome and delicious Council Meats. There are many varieties of Council Meats—Veal Loaf—Roast Beef—oh, a host of good meat dishes—all so easily prepared! Why you'll be just a few minutes fixing the meat course for breakfast, luncheon or dinner.

But the goodness and the ease of preparation are minor advantages compared to the real economy you will find, in buying ready-cooked Council Meats instead of meat you have to trim and cook.

Oakland City Hall Employee Endorses the Fong Wan Herbs

While in the U. S. Army I suffered agonies from piles. I was treated by the army doctors without effect, and later by several physicians in Oakland, one of whom told me to go home and take some Castor Oil and I'd be all right. But I didn't get "all right." I suffered just the same and was told that I must face an operation.
Finally I heard of the well-known Fong Wan Chinese Herb treatment. I drank the herb about four weeks and am now in fine condition. I have no more trouble from my former complaint and am working in the Oakland City Hall. I am glad to recommend the Fong Wan Herbs to all who are in poor health.

LEADING STOCKS REACT, PRICES SOON STEADIED

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Yesterday's losses were partly retrieved in a number of cases at the opening of today's stock market. United States Steel Reading, American International and Baldwin displayed temporary strength, but the entire list soon weakened when bullish traders found they could not advance prices without getting a liberal supply of stocks.

Particular weakness was noted in Independent Steel, Bethlehem and Republic. Railroads moved in a confused fashion with Northern Pacific and some of the low priced shares losing ground.

A break of four cents in sterling due to the unsettled Polish situation, together with rumors of new financing and poor earnings of various industrial corporations tempted additional short selling. The market, however showed plain evidence of being oversold, and when support appeared for certain stocks prices rallied briskly.

The rebound carried the leaders up 1 to 1 points. The inquiry for the standard railroads was slow, but general buying was rather cautious. United States duplicated yesterday's low figure at 85⅞, but rebounded to near 87. Baldwin and the investment oil stocks also displayed pronounced strength.

The market was again upset by active selling of Bethlehem, Baldwin and Corn Products, which fell 2¾ to 3 points. Denials by President Grace of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation that any new financing was contemplated caused a rally in that stock, but the list elsewhere continued to be subjected to spasmodic selling.

New points of weakness cropped out especially in the coppers, but there was a notable rally later in the day. The closing was strong. There was a recovery on call money.

SCHOOL COSTS GAIN $2,000,000 IN PAST YEAR

The total cost of public schools in Alameda county for the fiscal year ending July 1 was over $2,000,000 greater than in the previous year, according to the annual report of County Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick. The report was prepared by Assistant County Superintendent of Schools D. E. Martin in the absence of Superintendent Frick, who has been ill for the past three months.

COSTS LEAP UP

The total cost of school maintenance for the whole county is $5,681,493.49, apportioned as follows: Kindergartens, $164,504.96; grammar schools, $3,782,243.26; high schools, $1,734,745.19. The total for the previous year was $3,482,174.59. That the cost of maintenance has increased at a much greater ratio than the enrollment is shown by the report which gives the total number of pupils for this year as 76,200, and last year, 70,305. The enrollment this year is apportioned this: Kindergarten, 5072; grammar, 47,427; high, 23,701. The per capita cost in the different departments is: Kindergarten, $74.31; grammar, $77.24; high, $163.81.

The total value of school property in Alameda county is given as $11,512,997. Of this total kindergarten property is valued at $53,946; grammar, $8,660,201; high, $2,798,850.

The expense of administration in the three cities shows that the city of Alameda schools is the most economically run. The cost of administration for Alameda, with 6124 pupils, is $11,790, as compared with $10,710 for last year. The administration of Berkeley schools for this year is $41,172.02, as compared with $20,673.37 for last year. The enrollment for Berkeley is 13,240 as compared with 11,035 last year.

ADMINISTRATION RISES

The cost of administration of the Oakland schools this year is $110,913.26, as compared with $54,675.69. This shows that the cost of administration doubled in a year, while the number of pupils only increased from 40,351 to 49,186.

That the state has only contributed about one-fifth to the cost of education in this county is shown by the report, which gives the state apportionment for grammar schools as $684,584.08; the county apportionment as $1,137,872.08, and district taxes for schools as $1,026,679.97. The state apportionment for high schools was $118,212.68; county, $545,207.95; district taxes, $772,947.45.

The average annual salaries of principals and teachers in all county schools is as follows: Kindergarten teachers, $1418; grammar school teachers, $1574; high school, $1731; grammar school principals, men, [illegible] principals, $2509.

Police Corporal Is Made Sergeant

Corporal Julius Sternitzky was promoted to the rank of sergeant in the police department today by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Morse, filling the vacancy created in the list of sergeants when V. J. Coley was appointed an assistant inspector several months ago. Sternitzky was second on the eligible list recently created by the Civil Service Board. The list was headed by Corporal Leslie Cox, and Corporal Edward O. Steinbach was third, only three corporals taking the examination.

Eastern Scouts Reach Oakland; New York City Boys Visit Camp

Five Young Tourists Get Western Thrill From Holdup in Yosemite

Five New York City Boy Scouts who are touring America on an 8000-mile visit to the principal industrial and natural centers of the country under the auspices of the Far Western Travelers' Association, passed today in Oakland.

The scouts were entertained by Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough, who is executive chairman of the local Boy Scout council, and Charles G. Monroe, acting president and general manager of the Taft and Pennoyer company, representing the Far Western Travelers' Association.

For the last three days the boys have been guests of the San Francisco council of Boy Scouts. They will leave for Portland, Ore., at 10 o'clock tonight.

SEES EASTBAY SIGHTS

Arriving at 10 in the morning the boys were taken from the Hotel Oakland for an automobile trip to Berkeley, through the University of California campus. At noon they returned to the hotel for luncheon and later left for an automobile trip over the Skyline boulevard.

Completing this run, the scouts paid a visit to the Boy Scout camp of the local council on upper Dimond canyon, where they were shown the woodcraft activities of the summer camp.

Tonight the scouts will be guests at dinner at the Hotel Oakland before leaving for Portland.

The five boys on the trip were chosen by competitive examination in scout lore from 12,000 Boy Scouts of New York city. All were born and raised in New York city and three of them had never been outside of New York city before this trip.

EXPERIENCE EARTHQUAKES

A real wild western thrill was furnished the Eastern boys on their return from the visit to Yosemite valley as they were riding on the stage, which was held up by bandits on the road near Miami three weegs ago.

They were in Los Angeles in time for the earthquakes, too, according to F. E. Matthes, New York scoutmaster, who has charge of the group.

The boys who are touring the country are: John Prest, Cyril McDermott, Herbert Jacobi, John L. Breitwieser and Walter Perry.

Hibernians to Hold Midsummer Dance

The annual midsummer dance of the Hibernians of Oakland will be held at Knights of Columbus hall Thursday evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the sick and death benefit funds of the order, which in the past year have amounted to over $3000. F. J. Youell is chairman of the committee.

PARR TERMINALS OPENING READY; NEW INDUSTRY

The official opening of the Parr Terminals to be held next Tuesday, under the auspices of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will also be in the nature of welcoming another new industry. Announcement is made by the Parr company that arrangements have been made to take care of the San Francisco Bay branch of the Portland Flour Mills of the western waterfront.

Already a ship load of flour, grain and mixed feed has been unloaded at the Parr Terminals for warehousing for some months. The Portland company has been seeking a suitable location on the bay, and has closed a deal for the use of the Parr properties. Application has been made by the Portland company to Mayor Davie for the fifty-year lease upon a portion of the Parr holdings, and if this is granted, the flour company will establish a large plant here.

In preparation for the official opening, the Parr Company is rushing the finishing touches of the big warehouse recently completed. All that remains to be done is clearing away the debris and painting the interior.

Guests of the Parr Company at the official opening also are likely to see under operation the machine of the Pneumatic Stevedoring Company which is now undergoing a test. This is considered by experts the most modern method of loading and unloading products such as copra and grain, which are sucked by air pressure into and out of the vessel's hold.

Acceptances of invitations to the Parr opening are being received in large numbers, and present indications are that a crowd of between 800 and 1000 will be present next Tuesday.

WEST AND EAST IN FASHION WAR

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The most important and thrilling controversy in local history was on here today—a war to determine whether the East or the West shall dictate styles of women's apparel in the latter section.

To determine the superiority of the rival fashions two style shows were being held. The Eastern display was staged at the Terrace Gardens, downtown, and the Western at the Marigold Gardens, on the North Side. Here's what the contending exhibitors had to say about each other's show:

WESTERNERS: "The revue at the Terrace Gardens is a cheap, sample room affair; an attempt by Eastern firms to dig into the Western trade."

EASTERNERS: "The Marigold affair is only an exhibition of freak-ish high priced and clumsy styles."

Both revues exhibited everything from suits and furs to whatever a lady first puts on when she gets up in the morning. The attendance at the opening last night was made up about equally of men and women.

At the Marigold Gardens a cabaret entertainment was put on to liven up the show, but the men frankly preferred models to chorus girls.

To further interest, the Westerners were to attempt a brand-new stunt late today—a style parade on Michigan boulevard. This thoroughfare is recognized as the windiest street in the world.

Eat Onions and Help Grower Is State's Appeal

Eat onions. The state commands it. Eat 'em for your breakfast, for your lunch, for your dinner—eat 'em fried, boiled, creamed, steamed, raw—only eat 'em.

State Market Director Gilbert B. Daniels of Oakland urges that large quantities be eaten at each and every meal. California has stores of surplus onions. If they are not eaten quantities will be wasted and producers will be discouraged from planting next year, says Daniels, and prices will be high. Protection lies in their general use. Wherefore eat.

Plans for a co-operative association in which the growers will market their own products are being prepared by Daniels.

COUGHLIN BABY SUSPECT JAILED

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—Federal agents here today believed they had virtually solved the mysterious kidnaping of Baby Blakeley Coughlin from his Norristown, Pa., home nearly two months ago by the capture of a foreigner, either a Pole or Italian, in a swamp near Egg Harbor, N. J. The government authorities declared the man has admitted stealing the baby of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Coughlin for whom the police of the entire nation have been searching since June 3.

Authorities believe they will also solve the disappearance of a $12,000 ransom with the arrest of the foreigner. They declare he has admitted tricking the baby's father into placing the ransom in hiding near the Norristown home, where the prisoner obtained it later.

The suspect is a man about 45 years old. He was placed in an automobile after his capture and spirited away. Forty federal agents participated in the round-up and capture, which was veiled with secrecy. Sixty other agents aided in establishing a police net which extended for miles in every direction.

Starr declared he came to the United States to let contracts for some of the materials.

JUDGE SAWTELLE DECLARES WAR ON GROG VENDORS

The national prohibition law will be enforced in Alameda county and San Francisco and other bay counties, if it is necessary to fill the jails to overflowing, declared United States District Judge William H. Sawtelle, after sentencing Paul Bruhn, 423 Twelfth street, Oakland, to four months in the county jail for a violation of the dry law.

Bruhn, who operates a soft drink establishment, pleaded guilty to the sale of one drink of grappa to a revenue officer for 35 cents. He informed the court he had not sold more than four gallons of grappa within three weeks and estimated that each gallon produced 100 drinks. He asserted he had not made a regular business of selling liquor, but had kept some on hand for his own use and for sale to friends who dropped in.

COURT'S IRE AROUSED

James Jensen, 707 Adeline street, charged with the illegal possession of grappa and with maintaining a public nuisance, earlier in the day had pleaded guilty. He was ordered to appear in court this afternoon, with the intimation he would receive a severe sentence. Jensen had declined to tell where he had obtained the liquor found in his possession. He was in court when Bruhn was sentenced. When called before the court he explained he had not understood the earlier instructions of the court and wished to change his plea of guilty to not guilty.

Judge Sawtelle, after closely cross-examining the defendant as to his reason for changing his plea, permitted him, with reluctance, to obtain an atatorney, and instructed him to be in court tomorrow morning. Jensen has been unable to obtain $1000 bail.

WARNS LAW-BREAKERS

After declaring that it was time violators of the prohibition amendment thoroughly understood that infractions will result in drastic penalties, the court said:

"I am going to stop this business if I have to fill to overflowing the jails of this and other bay counties."

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 3. — Dr. T. S. Manning of this city, under a two-year sentence for alleged violation of the anti-narcotic act, wrote more than 13,900 prescriptions for narcotics between January 20 last and July 20, local federal officials announced today.

Stockton Mayor to Quit; Declares Pay Is Too Low

Mayor A. C. Oullan.

STOCKTON, Aug. 3. — The pay of the mayor of Stockton is too low to justify A. C. Oullahan, the present mayor, in continuing to hold that office, he declares in announcing that he will not be a candidate for the office in October.

Mayor Oullahan says while the city charter does not require that all the time of its mayor be devoted to civic affairs, those affairs have nevertheless grown to such an extent that they cannot be handled properly unless the executive does devote all his time to them.

Mayor Oullahan says that as a result of giving practically all his time to the city he has been compelled to allow his private business to dwindle to negligible proportions and that he finds it necessary to rehabilitate them by devoting all his time to them.

Under Oullahan's administration the plans for a Stockton harbor, which will make the city a great seaport, have been worked out.

Northwest Mounted Trail Train Bandits

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 3. — Mounted police from Mernie, Lethbridge and Sentinel, B. C., today are trailing three bandits who held up the conductor and passengers on a Canadian Pacific train near the British Columbia boundary last night. The bandits are believed to be foreigners from Calgary. The robbery was committed as the train was moving. The highwaymen jumped off near Sentinel.

LEGION TO FIGHT DOMESTIC FOES, SAYS D'OLIER

"We went to war to protect ourselves against our foes without. We now, as civilians once more, band ourselves together to protect our country from our foes within," declared Franklin D'Olier, national commander of the American Legion, while speaking at a luncheon of Legio nmen, representatives of various organizations and city officials at the Hotel Oakland yesterday.

"The American Legion stands for service," he said. "Service to our country. Service to our comrades and service to the community in which we live.

"The country has nothing to fear from the American Legion. It has everything to hope for. Our country also has nothing to fear from the radicals. The Legion took its stand last fall and summer against those who sought to destroy the institutions for which we fought in the late war. The spirit of the Legion man in civilian clothes is the same as his spirit was when he was organized in the various branches of the service to destroy the enemies of our country. He knows the power of organized force."

Those present at the luncheon who extended a welcome to the national commander were:

Mayor John L. Davie; Floyd R. Gray, president of the Board of Education; Joseph E. Caine, managing director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce; J. F. Mullins, chairman of the Board of Supervisors; I. H. Spiro, president of the Merchants' Exchange; Samuel Donahue, representing organized labor, and General Greene, former commander of Camp Greene, Wash.

"The American Legion has become a factor in the development of our country," declared I. H. Spiro. "If American men were sufficient in war they should be more so in peace," he said.
